

FOUR EASTBAY ARMEN DIE IN BLAST

PARLEY FOR IRISH PEACE BEGINS IN LONDON

YOSEMITE FLYERS KILLED IN BLAST ON RECORD FLIGHT

Pilot "Bud" Coffee of Oakland Giocondo Jacuzzi, Builder, J. H. Kauke, A. D. McLeish Perish; Plane Falls 600 Feet

TRAGEDY OCCURS AT MODESTO

Returning to Oakland from the Yosemite Valley on a trail-blazing trip for a proposed air route between the two points, after the first lap of the journey had been completed with utmost success, four men, including a well-known local aviator and a Berkeley airplane manufacturer, were instantly killed at Modesto today when their specially constructed passenger-carrying monoplane exploded in the air and crashed 600 feet to the ground. The dead are:

HAROLD "BUD" COFFEE, 23 years old, of 323 Twenty-fourth street, Oakland; well-known aviator and pilot of the monoplane.

GIOCONDO JACUZZI, one of the builders of the flying machine, and a member of the firm of Jacuzzi Brothers, airplane manufacturers, 1450 San Pablo avenue, Berkeley.

JOHN H. KAUKU, about 26 years old, a former army aviator, 2516 Virginia street, Berkeley, a passenger.

A. D. McLEISH, 90 West Santa Inez avenue, San Mateo, a passenger.

Following the accident the victims of the wreck were positively identified as the four men who Tuesday afternoon in the same monoplane left the Durant Flying Field here for the Yosemite Valley to blaze the trail for a proposed air route. The destination was reached in safety, and the plane was scheduled to arrive back here at 9 o'clock this morning. They left Yosemite early today.

The accident occurred while they were flying over Modesto on the final lap of the record-breaking journey. The machine exploded about 600 feet up in the air and crashed to the ground within the Modesto city limits.

Many saw the accident. They agreed that an explosion shook the plane apart. According to witnesses, the sound of the explosion was not heard for several seconds after the flames were seen shrouding the plane. The explosion tore the wings off the monoplane and it fell like a plummet. The fuselage went down into a tail spin and crashed into the center of Linden street, Modesto, on the edge of the city park.

Just before the ill-fated plane struck the street, it dropped on scores of high tension electric light, telephone and telegraph wires and carried them to the street, where they sizzled in the tar. The high voltage wires added to the fire which had enveloped the doomed machine and a second later the debris was a huge mass of hissing flames.

One man was buried in a mass of ashes and the other bodies lay a few rods from the burning pile of wreckage.

Hundreds of persons heard the crash and ran to the scene of the catastrophe, but lines were quickly thrown about the wrecked monoplane and the crowd held back by guards.

One of the wings was found half a block away from the wrecked plane. It had not been touched by fire, and is thought to have been torn off by the explosion before the flames had a chance to touch it.

VICTIMS' BODIES BADLY BURNED

The bodies were so badly burned and torn that the police stopped photographers from taking pictures of the wreck. Small portions of the bodies of the four men were strewn about the ground, and the crowd which gathered about the fallen machine had to be restrained by the police while the work of recovering the bodies was being carried out. So tightly was the body of the pilot wedged beneath the wreckage that it was an hour or more before it could be extricated.

Identification of the victims was difficult, but letters found near the wreck addressed to Coffee and a ring which he wore on his finger, conclusively established the identity of the party, as it was known that the three other men left Yosemite with him.

Later friends of Coffee appeared on the scene and declared that they recognized his body.

It is supposed that engine trouble was responsible for the fall. According to eye-witnesses of the death dive, the human cargo of the monoplane accentuated its plunge earthward. The spot where it fell is only eight blocks from the heart of Modesto's business district.

The four bodies were taken in charge by Coroner Carl W. Shannon and were removed to a chapel. Arrangements were being made late today for their return to Oakland.

MACHINE ON WAY TO OAKLAND

The doomed monoplane was scheduled to arrive in Oakland at 9 o'clock this morning at the Durant Flying Field, completing a trail-breaking flight which had never before been attempted. If the flight from this city to the Yosemite Valley was a success it was to have received the endorsement of Stephen Mather, director of national parks, and a service was to be inaugurated in the spring by HAROLD "BUD" COFFEE, Oakland aviator, killed with three others in monoplane crash at Modesto.

TIE-UP N BUILDING UP TO S. F. VOTE

Exchange Across Bay Holds Stormy Session and Defers Ballot On Wage Agreement Until Tomorrow's Session

Oakland Exchange Stands On Decision To Act Only in Harmony With San Francisco Builders On Pacts

The building agreement signed yesterday by the Building Trades Council of Alameda county and the special committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce will be brought up for ratification or refusal by the Builders' Exchange at a meeting to be held in San Francisco at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

This word was given out by the Builders' Exchange across the bay today, after a heated session which lasted all morning. W. H. George, chairman of the conference committee of the exchange, said that the Oakland Chamber of Commerce members would be invited to tomorrow's meeting.

The agreement scheduled drawn up yesterday was submitted to the Oakland Builders' Exchange yesterday afternoon and precipitated an exciting session that lasted all afternoon and into the early evening. The statement was made that the Chamber of Commerce had not notified them of the proposals for agreement and that they had not been consulted.

S. F. APPROVAL HELD NECESSARY

On the grounds that a San Francisco approval was necessary, the exchange refused to ratify the agreement or to take any action until after a conference had been held with leaders across the bay. In the meantime the members of the Building Trades Council are awaiting the word that will allow the assumption of work, if being said that the men are ready to go back on the jobs tomorrow and under the conditions outlined in the agreement.

SPECIAL MEETING WITH MATERIAL MEN

Following on its program, the special committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce which brought about the building trades agreement with the Alameda County Building Trades Council has arranged a meeting with material dealers for this afternoon.

This is in accordance with the statement issued yesterday by the committee that the committee would attempt to bring down the prices of building materials.

The meeting was with the Alameda County Material Dealers' Association and was held in the offices of the Chamber of Commerce. It is understood that only a few details remain to be worked out before the word will be given for the men to go back to work.

READY TO WORK

Reports from the building trades council were to the effect that all of the crafts represented in that organization were ready to resume their tools under the conditions laid down in the Memorandum of agreement. The committee of the council, headed by E. J. Donohue, announced that they hoped to have the men back on the job tomorrow morning. Donohue and his associates remained at the Labor Temple awaiting the word of the final settlement of the difficulty.

NIGHTINGALE IS CHARGED WITH MURDER

Warrant Is Sworn Out By Man At Whose House Victim of Policeman's Bullet Lived; Arrest Is Due During Day

Investigation of Circumstances Connected With Shooting and Stories of Different Witnesses Ordered by Chief

A warrant charging Patrolman Charles Nightingale with the murder of Joseph Suppo, 710 Eighth street, was issued today by Prosecuting Attorney Fred Donohue, and signed by Police Judge Mortimer Smith, on complaint of S. A. Barbour, at whose home Suppo lived. Chief of Police James T. Drew expected to place the officer under arrest this afternoon. In a dying statement Suppo denied the charges of the officer who shot him. His story is paralleled by a statement made by Pasquale Gillio, arrested by Nightingale on similar charges. Gillio is still held in the city prison.

Investigation of the shooting will be prosecuted until every story concerning the affair has been checked up. Commissioner Frank Colbourn announced today that the inquiry, Colbourn said, was already under way, but would be pushed to completion after the coroner's jury has brought a verdict late this afternoon or this evening.

COLBURN PROMISES FULL INVESTIGATION

"I will say right now," said Colbourn, "that there is every desire of the department to get at the bottom of the affair, to fix the blame if there is any, and to see that nothing is held back. I have issued orders that there is to be no covering up and no protection while, at the same time, we are not going to take action against any officer until he is shown to have been in the wrong. If it is brought out to my satisfaction that Nightingale had been drinking, which he has denied, we will act toward his dismissal from the force."

The statements under investigation are those made in the dying statement of Suppo, arrested by Nightingale on complaint of a boy who said he had been mistreated, by the boy, said by Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Barbour, at whose home Suppo lived, Pasquale Gillio, several of the neighbors, a story that agrees with the statement made by the man who was shot.

According to the boy who made the complaint, Nightingale, before he made the arrest, is said to have remarked that "if you keep still about this there may be a chance for you to make some money. This statement is on record in a report of the hearing before Prosecuting Attorney Fred Donohue, Captain Richard Morrissey and Inspectors Bodie Wallman and Tim Flynn.

PATROLMAN SAYS HE FINED TO SCARE

Nightingale, who was off duty at the time of the arrest, is said to have left the dinner table in a West Oakland cafe to go with the boy to the home on Eighth street. As a patrolman he is always regarded as on duty; he was acting within his province, although not in accord with the new and rigid discipline ordered by the commission, Colbourn, which provides that, in such cases, the officer should report to headquarters his intentions and purposes.

According to Nightingale, Suppo and Gillio offered resistance and the shot was fired with an intention to intimidate them. The patrolman says that he feigned drunkenness in order to gain admittance to the house as that he had not taken anything to drink.

"A patrolman should always feel that the commissioner is behind him in the exercise of his duty," said Colbourn today, "and Nightingale" felt that no action will be taken in his case unless it is shown that he was at fault. When I read over the dying statement of Suppo and heard that the boy concerned in it was convinced that the stories were serious enough to warrant the temporary suspension. The complete investigation will determine any further action."

NIGHTINGALE SAYS SHOT TOWARD GROUND

Concerning the shooting, Nightingale declared Mrs. S. H. Barbour did not see the shooting, that she was in no place where she could have seen it. He said further:

"If I was going to kill anybody, Gillio would be the man I would shoot at, because when I struck him with my left hand I hit him so hard I broke several of the ligaments. It was then that Suppo attacked me. 'With my left hand useless and I drew my revolver and fired. I shot downward to the ground.' The only reason I fired was to scare the men. I did not fire to kill. All that I want now is that everybody connected with the affair tell the truth, and then the public will see that I was justified in drawing my revolver and firing the shot which, by accident, struck Suppo and which resulted in his death."

England Wanted U. S. to Cancel Allied War Debt

WASHINGTON, July 14.—A letter from Premier Lloyd George to President Wilson dated August 8, 1920, dealing with a proposal for cancellation of inter-allied war debts, was placed in the record of the Senate finance committee today by treasury officials during hearings on the administration allied loan refunding bill.

A cablegram on the same subject from the British chancellor of the exchequer to R. C. Lindsey, representing the British treasury in this country, which was transmitted to Assistant Secretary Leffingwell of the treasury department, also was presented.

Senate Votes on Soldier Bonus Bill Tomorrow

Recommittal of Question To Committee As Requested Deemed Certain.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—An agreement for a vote Friday at 3 o'clock on the motion to recommit the soldier's bonus bill was reached by the Senate late yesterday by unanimous consent.

The result of the vote, leaders of both factions agreed, was not in doubt; recommitment, as requested by President Harding, is deemed certain.

Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, Republican leader, secured the agreement at the close of another day's assault by the Democratic Senators. He said the recommitment motion was in the way of other important measures, such as the anti-beer and anti-liquor bills.

In agreeing to a vote, however, Democrats gave notice that they would not only oppose the Republican motion, but would seek to instruct the finance committee to report the bill back at an early date.

Senators Watson of Georgia and Hefflin of Alabama led the Democratic attack today on the motion to recommit. Senator Myers, Democrat, of Montana, however, advocated recommitment.

President Harding had exceeded his constitutional limitations in asking the Senate to postpone consideration of the bill was asserted by the Republicans proposed putting the bill to sleep forever. It was asserted also by Senator Hefflin.

Senator McCumber, Republican, North Dakota, who caused the bill to be placed before the Senate on behalf of the finance committee, conferred with President Harding.

LEGION WILL FIGHT ON SAYS EMERY

INDIANAPOLIS, July 14.—The American Legion will fight on for adjusted compensation without change in the provisions of the present program, following the message of President Harding to the Senate urging delayed action, John G. Emery, Legion national commander, said in a statement issued from national headquarters here.

"The sudden alarm which apparently has swept over government officials, lest through adjusted compensation the United States treasury would be so depleted as to mean national calamity, will cause no recession of our activity to bring about such measures of civil re-establishment and material readjustment as we believe to be for the best interest of the country itself," Emery declared.

Emery today wired Senator Porter McCumber, who had led the fight on the Senate floor for the Legion measure, that recommitment of the bill to the committee must not be permitted.

Obregon Agrees To Revoke Oil Tax

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

GALVESTON, Texas, July 14.—The Obregon government has capitulated in its recent order imposing an added 25 per cent export tax on crude oil, according to dispatches reaching here today from Mexico City. A presidential decree officially revoking the tax order is about to be issued.

Decision to rescind the order, which had caused foreign oil producers to lodge vigorous protests with their home governments and later caused the American producers to close down the great wells around Tampico, is reported to have been reached by Obregon in an all-night session with a committee from the Chamber of Deputies.

Indemnity Favored For Slain Japanese

WASHINGTON, July 14.—Payment to the Japanese government of indemnities for the killing by American soldiers of two of its subjects is provided in a bill favorably reported today by the House foreign affairs committee.

A payment of $5000 is to be made for the shooting of Tora Hachi Ueda, a Japanese subject, at Camp Geronimo, May 25, 1916.

20 JAPANESE DRIVEN FROM FIG RANCH

Rounded Up By White Residents Near Livingston, in Merced County, Put on Cars and Told To Stay Away

Signs Posted Along Highways Warn Against Employment of This Class of Labor and Feeling Is Reported Acute

MERCED, Cal., July 14.—A gang of Japanese laborers employed to work on a new fig orchard on the Byron Bearce ranch, nine miles southwest of Livingston, this county, were forcibly taken from the ranch by a party of white residents last night, bundled on to a railroad truck at Livingston and told to leave the neighborhood and never come back.

About twenty Japanese were in the party driven out of town. Livingston is noted for its opposition to Japanese laborers, signs on the highways at either end of the town warning them to keep away.

Japan Accepts Bid To Parley; Action Puzzles

Disarmament Welcomed But No Mention Made of Pacific Problems in Note.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—The state department today was notified of Japan's acceptance of the invitation to a disarmament conference.

The Japanese communication, however, omitted any reference to a discussion of problems in the Pacific, which was also included in the tentative invitation sent out last Saturday.

It was stated on high authority that Japan's failure to include the Pacific questions in her acceptance was not necessarily regarded as an expression of disapproval of the American proposal.

It was added, however, that the Japanese government would have to agree beforehand to include Pacific problems because any practical results of disarmament would have to be based on an amicable settlement in the Pacific.

JAPAN'S ATTITUDE IS PERPLEXING

Officials were plainly perplexed by the Japanese answer and it was assumed that no formal invitation naming a date for the conference will be prepared until the Japanese attitude is clearer.

The possibility of Japan making some such answer had been foreseen and discussed here but it was believed that she would finally accept unreservedly.

Formal notification that China would participate in the conference also was received today. All the five nations which received the American query as to whether invitation to a conference would be welcomed have now replied with an unconditional affirmative except Japan.

China's notification of her willingness to participate in the conference included a statement that she would welcome discussions of the far-eastern problem.

WOULD COMPLETE PRESENT PROGRAM

TOKYO, July 14.—The newspaper Nichinichi today stated that the Japanese navy department will insist on completing its present building program.

There is a general feeling here among public officials in favor of accepting disarmament in principle but adding many reservations as far as the present situation goes.

The general trend of opinion is that President Harding's proposal came sooner than expected and that the time is not ripe for such a move.

FRANCE IS FEARED OF GERMAN MENACE

PARIS, July 14.—Premier Briand, being a pacifist, favors any program to prevent wars, but disarmament must be considered by France with the ever-present threat of Germany.

This was the authoritative presentation of the premier's views regarding the Washington disarmament conference as given to the United Press today by a close friend of Briand.

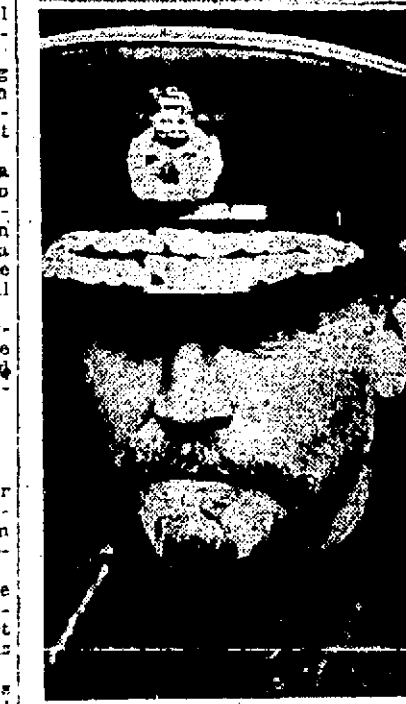

"Briand himself is a sincere pacifist and desires peace," he said. "All enterprises aiming to prevent wars are assured in advance of his sincere support. However, when it is a question of Germany, it is necessary to take all precautions."

"Any disarmament which would reduce France's military force to the level of Germany's would permit Germany to attempt, with chances of success, the new aggression which she already calls 'the revenge.'"

LONDON, July 14.—The foreign office denied today that Great Britain would support any such proposal.

Lloyd George and De Valera Confer Over Two Hours

Three men prominent in negotiations for peace for Ireland: Lloyd George, Eamon De Valera, and General Jan C. Smuts.

Judge Bribed in Oil Case, Charge

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

SAPULPA, Okla., July 14.—District Judge Lucien B. Wright of Sapulpa was arrested late last night and released on $10,000 bond following an information filed by S. P. Freeling, state attorney general, before Justice Pittz, charging him with accepting a bribe for a decision rendered in the $1,500,000 Tumtum Atkins oil land case recently.

His preliminary hearing was set for July 27. The information did not state who paid the alleged bribe.

Valuation of State Over Nine Billions

SACRAMENTO, July 14.—California's value, based on property subject to taxation and the assessments of 1919-20, is $2,288,945,553, says the annual report of the financial transactions of cities and counties of California for 1920, made public today by Deputy State Controller Claude E. Cooper.

PREMIER AND IRISH LEADER HOLD PARLEY

"President of Irish Republic" Goes to Downing Street and Talks Over Terms For Permanent Peace in Erin

Bomb Is Hurlled in Belfast Store Just Before Conference Occurs; De Valera Declares Prospects Are Bright

BELFAST, July 14.—(By the Associated Press.)—Rioting broke out again in the Court street area here this morning. A bomb was thrown and damaged a grocery store, which also was looted, and another house was set afire. A number of people were injured by snipers. Several windows were broken. The police managed to restore order without being compelled to use firearms.

LONDON, July 14.—(By the Associated Press.)—Eamon De Valera and Premier Lloyd George conferred for more than two and a half hours today on the question of an Irish settlement. The Republic's leader arrived at the Prime Minister's official residence in Downing Street at 4:30 p. m. and left at 7:10 p. m.

The conference will be resumed at 11:30 o'clock tomorrow morning. At the conclusion of the conference Art O'Brien, president of the Gaelic League in London, stated that it had terminated "amicably."

CHOWDRI WAVE IRISH FEARS.

Notwithstanding a drizzling rain, a great crowd which had gathered at the entrance to Downing street waited anxiously for an announcement from the momentous meeting. Shortly after De Valera entered the prime minister's house the crowd felt a little and began to retire to the roads.

The Irish Republican leader drove directly from the hotel in Buckingham place, and was accompanied by the Irish delegation consisting mostly of women, which had gathered about the hotel swarmed around the automobile as it departed, cheering and waving Sinn Fein flags.

COME FROM ABROAD

De Valera received a cable message from the United States today informing him of the postponement of the hearing in the United States Senate on the resolutions of Senator La Follette and Senator Norris in connection with Irish affairs. The message concluded:

"America, with implicit faith in your ability and your earnestness, hopes the negotiations will terminate in a lasting peace based on justice."

The communication was signed by J. D. Scott and Eugene Kinkaid, of the legislative committee of the American Association for Recognition of the Irish Republic.

De Valera also received many other messages from Ireland, England, the United States and Australia, expressing hope for the success of the conference.

OUTLOOK FOR PEACE BRIGHT, SAYS DE VALERA

LONDON, July 14.—(By the Associated Press.)—The outlook for a lasting peace in Ireland is brighter than it has ever been in history, declared Eamon de Valera, the Irish Republican leader, as he was about to enter into conference today with Lloyd George, the British prime minister, in an attempt to find a basis for an adjustment of the Irish problem. Asked what he considered the prospect of peace, De Valera replied:

"The outlook is brighter than it ever was in history. 'I am sure,' he added, 'that the atmosphere in England and Ireland is right for peace. The only thing that is necessary now is for us to go down to the conference with a clear mind.'"

It was the first time De Valera had spoken for publication since his arrival in London Tuesday evening.

"This is simply a private conference with Mr. Lloyd George, leader of a long-range bombardment, to see what can be done at close quarters," said the Republican leader, who was in a bright and cheerful mood, in talking with the correspondents.

"I have been told," he said, "that you have been rather disappointed in my not talking more freely with you, but I am sure you quite understand the difficulties of the moment. I have come to tell you that it is not that I do not wish to say a number of things."

FOUR AVIATORS DIE IN FIRE AS MACHINE FALLS

Bud Coffee, Famous Pilot of Fast Flights, Among Victims.

When the machine arrived and was enthusiastic over the proposed air route.

Coffee was 23 years old and survived by his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Coffee, residing at 323 East Fourth street, and two sisters, Grace and Arline. Coffee's sister, Miss Arline, was John H. Kunka, visiting relatives in Modesto when the accident occurred and saw the machine which her brother piloted crash to the earth in a death dive.

MOTHER PROSTRATED.

Mrs. Coffee is at her home prostrated with grief as a result of her son's death and is under constant care of a physician.

According to flyers about the Bay region, "Bud" Coffee was one of the greatest flyers in the game and since the war he had been continuously engaged in aviation. Scarcely a day passed that he did not make a flight and many new records have been chalked up to his credit. Only days ago he made a record flight from Cheyenne, Wyo., to San Francisco, carrying Dempsey-Carpenter fight pictures for a local newspaper organization. The trip to San Francisco from the Wyoming capital occupied nine and one-half hours. Immediately after landing and taking on supplies he flew to Seattle with the same pictures. The flight to Portland was made in 6 hours and 10 minutes, and from Portland to Seattle in 1 hour and 35 minutes.

According to his father, as a result of these latest flights, within the last ten days he lost twenty-one pounds and was in no condition to make the flight Tuesday and today. He was tired and planned a good rest, but finally consented to fly to Yosemite and back when urged. He did not want to go his father said today.

Coffee made a specialty of mount-

"Bud" Urged by Father Not to Make Fatal Trip

By L. J. COFFEE

Father of Harold "Bud" Coffee, famous "air trail blazer," who with three other Eastbay men were killed in a crash this morning at Modesto.

The boy should not have made that trip into Yosemite valley. I did not want him to try it, and he didn't want to go himself.

Within the last ten days he had flown more than 4000 miles, carrying the Dempsey-Carpenter fight pictures, and on other flights and he was worn out. In this time he lost 21 pounds and he planned on taking a rest.

However, he was urged to go, and considered it a duty. "Bud" would do anything to help aviation, and this was a pioneer undertaking. I saw him just before he took off, and I didn't like it. After he left I seemed to have a premonition that something would happen.

When he came back from this flight he was going to take a rest for sure and not do any more flying for a few days, because he was just about all in.

We had figured on his being here for dinner today.

ing climbing and was one of the first men to fly into Yosemite. He was the first aviator in and out of Yosemite in one day. He also flew into the Hetch-Hetchy valley and to the Hetch-Hetchy valley and to the man to negotiate the last-named flight.

"Bud" graduated from Oakland Technical high school. He served in the army during the war and had a splendid record. During the war he was kept in this country as an instructor. He enlisted in 1917 shortly after the outbreak of hostilities and was later commissioned a second lieutenant.

Following the war he was discharged and went into commercial flying for himself.

"We cannot explain how the accident happened," it was stated at the Jaccuzzi headquarters in Berkeley, where the ill-fated monoplane was manufactured today. "We received a report that the plane had exploded before it started to fall and hit the high tension wires."

The plane was supposed to be fire-proof. The only possibility that we can see is that a piston or a cylinder broke and that the flying pieces smashed through the gasoline tank. That is the first plane we have ever had fall."

The trip to the valley was made with success and only two hours elapsed from the time the party left Oakland and arrived at their destination. An average speed of ninety miles an hour was made and only thirty gallons of gasoline was used to make the flight.

WERE ON RETURN TRIP.

Coffee and his three passengers left the valley at 7.15 o'clock this morning on the return trip. It was his intention to stop at Modesto for breakfast. Superintendent Lewis of the Yosemite National Park and a group of rangers and visitors to the valley saw Coffee and his passengers take off into the air in the doomed airplane. The plane was the largest that ever landed in the Yosemite and attracted a great deal of attention.

The pilot took the air from the floor of the valley without the slightest trouble, circled slowly and was high above the valley walls and then at a terrific speed started off in a bee line for Modesto. All day yesterday Coffee and a gang of mechanics had worked over the big plane and last night the aviator pronounced it in a perfect condition.

Before leaving the Yosemite valley he sent a message to Miss Ora Jennings, daughter of Judge Jennings of Modesto, asking her to meet his plane at the Modesto aviation field at 8 p. m.

Miss Jennings kept the appointment and was waiting in an automobile at the field when Coffee's of things to the people of Great Britain, but that the moment isn't opportune for it.

SUICIDE UNDERSTANDING.

"As far as I can see from your press here which I have studied very carefully, there is no country in the world which needs more to understand the aspirations of the Irish people and the right and logic of their case than your own people here."

Asked whether he would insist on the discussion in London being given full publicity, De Valera employed President Wilson's phrase, declaring he was in favor of "open covenants openly arrived at."

It was announced from De Valera's headquarters that this afternoon's conference would take the form of a personal interview between the British prime minister and De Valera, no one else being present. De Valera will be accompanied to No. 10 Downing street by Art O'Brien, president of the Gaelic League in London, and Robert C. Barton, member of the Irish Republic, it was stated. O'Brien and Barton, however, will not be parties to the interview.

Reports published today that an agreement was reached at the recent Dublin conference between De Valera and the Southern Unionists regarding the terms which would be demanded from the British government at this conference in London were categorically denied at De Valera's headquarters this morning by Secretary Childers of the visiting Irish party.

"There was no discussion, direct or indirect, of any such terms," said Childers. "The conference confined itself exclusively to discussion of Mr. Lloyd George's invitation to a conference and of the arrangements regarding the trip."

The published report to which Childers referred alleged that the terms of the proposed agreement included, besides the provisions of the present government of Ireland Act, the following: "A dominion status for Southern Ireland; Southern Ireland to be exempt from imperial taxation and have full fiscal autonomy; Northern Ireland to remain as it is at present."

BELFAST, July 14. (By the Associated Press)—Alderman Michael Staines, member of the British House of Commons for Dublin, who was released from Mount Joy prison on June 30, arrived in Galway yesterday.

am is seeking to bring about two international conferences on the lines proposed by President Harding, one dealing with the Far East, the other with disarmament.

It had been persistently reported that Great Britain had made formal representations upon the subject suggesting that the preliminary conference be held in London and that it deal only with Pacific problems. Foreign office officials said that Great Britain was willing to treat upon all matters at a single conference in Washington and that Marquis Curzon, foreign secretary, is already discussing procedure with George Harvey, American ambassador.

RACE QUESTION IS ADVANCED BY JAPAN.

By DUKE M. PARRY, Staff International News Service Correspondent.

TOKYO, July 13. (delayed)—It was learned today from an authoritative source that Japan's reply to President Harding's invitation to join a disarmament conference, while accepting, will require as to whether Japan, in entering the conference, will be considered as an equal with other nations.

This was taken to indicate that the question of immigration will come to the forefront in the conference. The opinion expressed by government officers generally was summed up by one man, who said:

"Japan, while desiring to reintroduce the immigration question, this conference may force it. The fact now is that Japanese citizens are everywhere excluded. Why not apply the same principle toward America? All nations are to enter the conference as equal conferees, Japan will doubtless join, but she has the right to understand the problems that will come up and the first of these must be the immigration problem."

General distrust of the motives of the conference is expressed in some quarters here due to the invitation to China to participate. This has had an unpleasant reaction due to the belief that it means the Shantung question will be reviewed by the conference.

Japan unquestionably does not want this to come about because China has stoutly refused to treat on the issue directly with Japan.

The press comment is decidedly favorable. Tokyo papers uniting in praising President Harding's move. Belief was expressed in some quarters today that Premier Hara may head the Japanese delegation to the conference and it was also considered a possibility that Naval Minister Kato will attend.

Bullet From Dark Hits Man Stealing Train Ride

Harold Speares, aged 27, of 117
Sunnyside avenue, Piedmont, who, according to police records has a criminal record extending back to 1918, when he was given a sentence of from one year to life after being convicted of robbery in Los Angeles, was shot and seriously wounded while "beating" his way out of Oakland on a Western Pacific freight train at 2 a. m. today. He is believed to have been wounded by a shot fired by a member of the local police department, but several conflicting tales as to the shooting surround the affair with mystery. Policeman W. J.
Hughes, who was giving chase to
Speares and two companions, Basil Borra and Ralph Wood, fired several shots at the time, but declared in his report that his first three shots were fired in the air and that Speares, as after the first shot, doubled up as though he had been shot in the stomach. This gave rise to the opinion that Speares may have been shot several hours before, as three shots were fired by Policeman O'Connell to halt an escaped prisoner at about midnight last night.

O'Connell saw this unidentified man walking east on First street at the corner of Clay. He halted him and questioned him and the stranger said he was on his way to San Jose. He said he intended to "beat" his way there on a Southern Pacific or Western Pacific freight train. O'Connell took him into custody.

As he led the prisoner to a patrol box at First and Washington streets he was met by Policeman W. J. Hughes, who was waiting to relieve O'Connell. While Policeman O'Connell was ringing in at the patrol box the prisoner wrenched himself loose and escaped in the darkness.

After calling to him to halt, O'Connell fired three random shots, but the prisoner made good his getaway. The neighborhood was searched but no trace of the man could be found.

O'Connell went off duty and Policeman Hughes continued his search for the escaped prisoner. At about 2 o'clock, he encountered Ralph Wood of 718 Harrison street at Third and Jefferson and when questioned Wood said he was waiting to meet a man named Mickey. He said that he had arranged with "Mickey" and two other men to catch a Western Pacific freight train out of town at about 2 o'clock.

Officer Hughes walked up to Franklin street to meet the Western Pacific freight train as it passed by. He obtained a red lantern and flagged the train. According to his report, he looked on one side of the train and saw no one, but as he was walking back on the other side he saw two men trying to board the train.

He called to them to halt, he says, and both men broke and ran, proceeding east along the track. He says he fired one shot in the air to frighten them and that as he did so one of the men doubled up as though shot in the stomach and fell to the ground. He continued to pursue the other man, firing three shots at him, when the fugitive stopped. He gave the name of Basil Borra of 1066 Chestnut street.

The Emergency Hospital today reported that while he was riding on the side of a Western Pacific freight train at 2 a. m. today he felt a blow, as if some one had struck him in the back. He put his hand to his back and found that he had been shot. He said that when he found he had been wounded he jumped off the train.

Captain of Inspectors Richard McSorley and Chief of Police James Drew are making a thorough investigation of the case.

The prisoners say they met at the bathhouse at Lake Merritt yesterday and arranged to go to San Jose to hunt for work. The police are making an effort to learn if the men are in any way connected with recent robberies in and around Oakland.

In connection with the arrest of the three men who were attempting to "beat" their way to San Jose on a Western Pacific freight train at 3 a. m. today, the police plan to question the men to see if they have any connection with plans said to have been made a few nights ago to hold up the Southern Pacific station in Sixteenth street.

The wife of a prominent Oakland doctor while out with her husband overheard two men passing by say they were going to Berkeley to "pull off a job."

"And if it turns out all right," she heard one say, "we'll come back and hold up the Southern Pacific station in Sixteenth street."

Cook Accused of Passing Bad Checks

If George Bodoracco is freed on probation for working a bad check game on the First National Bank in this city, the Sacramento authorities will arrest him on a charge of passing thousands of dollars worth of bad paper.

The new money man, Lincoln S. Church said today when he captured the case until July 19.

Bodoracco, a cook, 26 years old, impecunious and debonaire, rallied upon a "swindle front" working a swindle on Oakland banks which netted him over $800 in a few weeks, according to Probation Officer Leonard Condon. He would make a small deposit of $10 and some spurious checks drawn on out of town banks, in an Oakland bank and then draw checks against this account.

According to Judge Church, his operations in Sacramento are said to be very extensive.

Washington Notes

WASHINGTON, July 14. — Consideration of the Sweet bill proposing consolidation of various government agencies dealing with former service men, was begun yesterday by the Senate finance committee, reading of the report of the sub-committee taking up measures for the session. There was some discussion of an amendment to place the consolidated bureau directly under the President, and Senator Smoot, chairman of the sub-committee, predicted its adoption.

Secretary Weeks has announced that 21,174 civilians had been discharged from employ of the War Department since March 1 and estimated that the reduction would mean an annual saving to the government of about $25,408,800. ## SOUTHERN CITIES LINE UP TO FIGHT L. A. MEN'S PLANS

Reapportionment To Be Made Political Weapon To Change Program.

Unexpected reinforcement to the Northern California legislative delegation for the reapportionment fight before the coming special session is seen by the politicians in the situation which has developed in Riverside. With E. C. Brouse, Riverside capitalist, as chairman, the interior cities of Riverside, San Bernardino and neighboring counties are organized to fight what they term an attempt of Los Angeles to seize for itself undue political and water-power advantages. The reapportionment club, the organized counties have discovered, is the most formidable weapon they can swing toward their neighboring metropolis.

Los Angeles, according to Brouse, is trying to take over state institutions, she is seeking to take for her own use some 15,000 horsepower already dedicated to public service elsewhere, and is fighting in the courts to take this power from the cities of the interior.

With Riverside and San Bernardino counties lined up with San Francisco in its fight to prevent Los Angeles from gaining control of the legislature under the new reapportionment plan, the power of decision will rest with the north. Alameda county, under any kind of a new districting plan, could not lose in representation, as it has gained in population at a rate that makes certain that it will hold its eight assemblymen and four senators. Under the plan of a certain group of agricultural counties to have senatorial representation fixed at one senator

Parisians Dance, Parade in Honor of Bastille Day

PARIS, July 14.—France today celebrated Bastille Day, the anniversary of the fall of the ancient prison which symbolized the oppression which brought about the French revolution. Observance of the holiday was begun last night when vast crowds gathered in the streets of the city and danced for many hours. There were in addition, great torch light parades along the boulevards. The people had prepared to celebrate the day in the historic manner.

In connection with the observance of Bastille Day it was recalled that three years ago tomorrow morning the Germans launched their futile attempt to break the allied lines and reach Paris.

from each county, of course, Alameda would suffer a reduction, but it is not thought that this proposal will win any weight of consideration. Some decided shifts in state jobs to come with the reorganization program of the governor are expected to be announced within a few days.

Miss Grace Skoermer, secretary of the senate, was in Oakland this week on her way home from Sacramento, where she has finished the task of compiling the records of the recent session of the legislature. She is said to be in line for a federal position, and it is also said that a state place is awaiting her should she care to accept.

Assemblyman Percy West, chairman of the committee organized to investigate the University of California agricultural courses, and which made its investigation in the interval between half-sessions of the legislature, spent a part of this week in Oakland and Berkeley. He is a member of the agricultural, irrigation and universities committees, and while he would not say, it is believed that he was interesting himself in the report that is to be made to the legislature two years from now.

EAST OAKLANDERS ASK BETTER CAR SERVICE FROM S. P.

Havenscourt Folk Petition Rail Board For Relief; Ask 20-Minute Schedule.

East Oakland residents beyond Havenscourt, through the Elmhurst Community club, are appealing to the State Railroad Commission for a 20-minute service on the Southern Pacific lines and elimination of the short line necessitating transfer from Havenscourt to Dutton court by installing a through train. The following petition signed by Charles S. Combe, president, and Mrs. Emeline Baxley, secretary of the club, was authorized sent to the railroad commission:

"Whereas, The service furnished by the Southern Pacific Company on the Dutton avenue line east of Havenscourt is limited to a single car between Havenscourt and Dutton court, necessitating a change of cars at Havenscourt to the annoyance and inconvenience of passengers, and often with loss of time in t at during the major part of time it runs only at 40 minute intervals, and sometimes at one hour intervals times at one hour periods;

"Whereas, This lack of sufficient transportation causes residents of the territory served by the lines great inconvenience and annoyance, causing them frequently to walk to East Fourteenth street, a distance of three-fourths of a mile, and the lack of transportation is materially retarding the up-building of this district and people are not inclined to build or invest where handicapped by lack of transportation;

"We petition your body to give relief to those dependent upon this line for transportation by directing the

Sonoma Sheriff Shoots Alleged Depot Robber

Charge of Buckshot Enters Chest and May Cause His Death.

SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.
SONOMA, July 14.—Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan early yesterday morning shot and seriously wounded a man he caught robbing the office safe and baggage room of the Northwestern Pacific railway. Last night Ryan took his prisoner to Santa Rosa, where the officers are seeking to connect him with the recent railway robbery at Petaluma. The prisoner has given the name of Thomas Blinn.

Since an epidemic of station robberies two years ago, Ryan has maintained at the depot a burgher alarm of his own manufacture. He had undressed and made ready for bed when the alarm sounded. He picked up a sawed-off shotgun and made for the depot arriving in time to catch his man at work. Waiting until he emerged from the building, Ryan ordered "hands up," but the man hesitated and it may cost him his life. Ryan fired and the full charge of buckshot took effect in the alleged burglar's chest and side.

When searched, a complete set of crooksman's tools and a bunch of keys and lock-picking devices were found.

Southern Pacific Railroad Company to furnish 20 minute train service on this line that is enjoyed by residents in other parts of Oakland; and to furnish through service, eliminating cars at Havenscourt.

"We assure you this territory is sufficiently populated to justify the service asked for."

The consolidation project was referred to the co-operative committee of which Mrs. Katie Campbell is chairman. This committee will also take up the matter of the permanent location of the Tunison Motor Company in this city.

CLEMENCY ASKED BECAUSE YOUTH'S MOTHER IS DYING

Ex-Prosecutor Wins Extension of Time For Confessed Robber.

Pleadings of an ex-prosecutor that a 22-year-old youth, whose mother is dying of tuberculosis, be not sent behind the "black walls of San Quentin prison" secured for Thomas McGuire, confessed garage robber, an extension of time until next Tuesday in which to present evidence for clemency.

Judge Lincoln S. Church today, at the request of Myron L. Harris, former deputy district attorney, agreed to give McGuire time to present evidence in his behalf. The probation officer has recommended that probation be denied.

McGuire and William Ireland, who is now in San Quentin, were interrupted and chased by a rifle and shotgun squad, about 3 a. m., April 22, after they had successfully robbed the garage of J. G. Trindle of Livermore of a number of tires. They escaped, but were later captured when they tried to sell their loot.

100,000 CHEER ELKS' PARADE AS L. A. CONFAB ENDS

Order Decides To Construct $2,500,000 Building in Chicago. Launch Paper.

LOS ANGELES, July 14.—Cheered by more than 100,000 spectators who lined the streets of the downtown district, Elks from all parts of the nation marched in the annual reunion parade of the order today. In the reviewing stand were Governor Stephens of California, Mayor Cryer of Los Angeles, and all high officials of the grand lodge.

The installation of William M. Mountain, a Toledo, Ohio, businessman and member of the Elks, lodge, as new grand exalted ruler, and other new officers occurred this morning just before the start of the parade. This was the grand lodge's last official act and nothing now remains for the visitors but entertainment programs extending through Sunday.

Following the parade many of the Elks went to Long Beach, where they were guests for the remainder of the day.

Tonight an elaborate electrical pageant will be staged over downtown Los Angeles streets by the large motion picture studios.

Chicago was selected for the national headquarters and plans approved for a monumental structure to house the heart of the lodge, at a cost of $2,500,000.

Arrangements were set in motion to bring forth within nine months a monthly publication entitled "The Elks' Magazine," to be issued from the Chicago headquarters.

The herd represented by some 50,000 delegates, dispersed itself while its leaders worked in monster barbecues. After a watching its most highly trained members create spectacular stunts in a contest that won for the Zebraves for Jackson, Mich., the national championship among Elks for drill work.

Reno's Blue Law Is Unconstitutional

RENO, July 14.—Reno's Sunday law enforced in this city, has been declared unconstitutional and void by District Judge T. F. Moran. The decision was rendered in the case of the city of Reno against D. Claus, proprietor of a fruit and vegetable store, who refused to obey the mandate of the ordinance and kept his store open in violation of the law. Judge Moran held the ordinance was discriminatory and class legislation. By violation of the court, the ordinance was discussed by all attorneys present. All agreed with the decision with the exception of City Attorney Leroy Pike.

EDNA PURVIANCE, Charlie Chaplin's leading lady, who admits she is not engaged to marry him.

Comedian's Leading Screen Lady Denies Rumors She Is to Marry Him.

Cheer up, girls! Charlie Chaplin is not engaged to marry his leading lady, Edna Purviance herself declares it. Neither is he engaged to wed May Collins. Gossip has assigned her to the role of fiancée to Richard Dix. So far as rumor is concerned, Chaplin is fancy free and heart whole, the sweetheart of his mother. "Positively and absolutely, I am not engaged to Mr. Chaplin," Miss Purviance said today. "I am wedded to my art. Mr. Chaplin, also, is too much interested in his work to think of matrimony."
But—and here Miss Purviance shows herself a true daughter of Eve—she admits that if she is asked many more times whether or no she is intending to become the famous comedian's bride, she will begin to believe it herself, and then—psychologists know what will happen.
Chaplin has learned the art of silence, she answers always, "The lady knows."

At Portland Home

BERKELEY, July 14.—Word has been received in Berkeley of the death of Mrs. Marion Humphrey of Portland, Oregon, who was stricken en route home from a visit with friends and relatives in the bay district, and who passed away soon after arriving in Portland.

Mrs. Humphrey was eighty-seven years of age, having been born in Windsor, Canada, October 25, 1833. About twelve years ago she came west with her husband, the late William Humphrey, to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Buckley of Portland. There she has remained, except for occasional visits to Berkeley.

Relatives who survive Mrs. Humphrey beside her daughter are Mrs. Edna Humphrey, her son's widow, and Marion Humphrey of Elton court, Mrs. C. W. Whitney of Keith avenue, a niece, and several nieces and nephews in Detroit and in Montclair, New York.

INDORSE IRISH FREEDOM.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 14.—A resolution endorsing Irish freedom, "without reservations," was adopted here last night by the Central Council, Friends of Irish Freedom, which then sent a cablegram to that effect to Eamonn de Valera, "president of the Irish republic," in London.

NO CANCELLATION OF FOREIGN DEBTS, ASSERTS MELLON

United States Will Make No Further Loans Under Wilson Agreements.

By J. BART CAMPBELL, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—Proposals for a cancellation of any part of the $11,000,000,000 foreign indebtedness to the United States will not be entertained or accepted by the administration, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon stated today before the Senate commerce committee.

Nor is it the intention of the Treasury Department to make any further advances on foreign commitments bequeathed to it by the Wilson administration, Mellon explained. The administration will not furnish any more cash or credits to Liberia, a delegation from which country is now knocking at the doors of the treasury, Mellon said.

It was disclosed by Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Wadsworth that as far back as February, 1920, when Senator Glass of Virginia, secretary of the treasury, the British chancellor of the exchequer cabled a suggestion to the Treasury Department that it would be a "good thing all around" if there were a general cancellation of the foreign indebtedness.

Labor Row in Melon Fields Not Serious

TURLOCK, July 14.—Despite rumors that the melon pickers and packers will walk out as the result of the wage dispute, there is no indication that this will happen. In fact it is believed it will not happen. While no agreement has yet been reached between the melon men and the "fruit tramps," indications point to a satisfactory conclusion being reached. The growers so far stand out on $4 a day for day labor and 22 cents a crate for picking and packing. The workers want 20 cents a crate. The growers declare that if the pickers and packers really quit, they will have no trouble in quickly filling their places, as unemployed men are plentiful.

Loss of Water Is Felt By Farmers

MANTECA, July 14.—Here in the floor of the San Joaquin valley, the break in the Strawberry dam spillway last Saturday night is felt to some extent, as 4000 acre feet of water was lost which would, in the fall season, have been used by the South San Joaquin and the Oakdale Irrigation districts. It cannot be replaced this season. However, the loss has its compensations, for the local district was saved about $5000 the water it might have had and which has now run to waste. The Pacific Gas and Electric company, however, will feel the loss of all this water keenly in generating electric power. It will also suffer loss of revenue from this source, since it will be unable to supply foothill farmers with water during the late season to the same extent as hitherto.

Woman Falls Dead On Eve of Journey

BERKELEY, July 14.—Miss Lena McKee, a resident of Berkeley for the past 25 years, died suddenly yesterday following a heart attack at the home of her mother, Mrs. Jane McKee, 2147 Berkeley way. The mother and daughter were preparing for a pleasure trip to Sonoma, California, and had their grips packed ready to start. Miss McKee had suffered from heart disease for the past year, according to her mother. She was 37 years of age. Only the mother survives her.

San Francisco News

SAN FRANCISCO, July 14.—Three priceless paintings, treasured by the Sutor estate, which were stolen from the old Sutor stable on Anza street on the night of December 27, 1920, were recovered last night in a raid on a cheap rooming house in Hillside, Wash. a suburb of Spokane, according to word received by the San Francisco police from authorities of that city. The paintings, it was said in the message, were damaged when found.

Discovery of the loss of the paintings was made by workmen. The art treasures were purchased at $10,000 more than fifty years ago. They are the property of Mrs. George W. Sutor, daughter of Adolph Sutor. The three pictures will be returned to San Francisco and an effort made to restore them.

Court action will be begun within two weeks on behalf of Mrs. Hallie Hyde Irwin and other heirs to compel equitable adjustment of the $100,000 estate of the late Eliza Beth A. Bixler. The Bixler will be filed for probate March 30 this year and Superior Judge E. J. Shorfall appointed C. K. McIntosh and Samuel P. Hamilton special administrators of the estate.

Mrs. Irwin was bequeathed one-sixth of the estate, or $50,000 with the other heirs receiving similar amounts. Special requests were made to the late Franklin K. Lane and his daughter, Nancy Lane Kaufman. Valuable books were also left to Franklin K. Lane. The estate consists mostly of improved lands in the Sacramento river delta districts.

Instead of assisting the possible victim of an automobile accident, Sheriffman's hand became a victim of a very much alive holdup man. At the point of a gun the bandit forced Sheriffman to hand over $19.75, after which he fled into Golden Gate park.

Detectives today began a search for Edward Weigelt, 21 years of age, who has disappeared after leaving a note indicating that he intended to commit suicide. Mrs. Jennie Taylor turned over to the police a letter she found in Weigelt's room. It said he would soon be over his worries and that he had no enemies to offend. According to the police Weigelt was arrested several months ago on charges by his wife, who had employed as a domestic on Lake street.

LENNON EMPLOYS EXPERTS TO SOLVE FORGERY PUZZLE

Bogus Telegram in Connection With Legion Election Denied By Wife.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 14.—Detectives and writing experts, employed by Thomas Lloyd Lennon, assistant United States attorney, today began an investigation of the alleged forged telegram and election scandal of Post No. 1, American Legion of this city, in an effort to prove that Lennon had absolutely nothing to do with the despatching of the wires and in no way connected with the matter.

Charles H. Kendrick, whose name was signed to the forged telegram withdrawing his candidacy for the commandery of the post, following a meeting of the legion's investigating committee last night, declared that at least two persons would be prosecuted here and in Chicago for complicity in the purported forgery and conspiracy. Indictments would be asked immediately in both the state and federal courts of California and Illinois, he said.

Mrs. Lennon faced the investigating committee last night in the office of C. L. Straub, chairman, in the Merchants National Bank building, and denied seeing the purported forged telegram.

"I think I have demonstrated to the committee that it was a physical impossibility for Mrs. Lennon to have sent that telegram that some people attribute to her," Lennon said last night on leaving the committee room, "and I expect to demonstrate finally within a day or two that I did not send the telegram from here that bore my name or initials."

"I learned late today that I can get that telegram in a few hours. I shall know whether it is signed in handwriting or written on a type-writer. If it is in handwriting I am the happiest man in the world, for I can soon prove that the handwriting is not mine."

"This evening I brought a witness before the committee to help prove my case. I am not at liberty to give you his name. I have engaged detectives and expect to start a strong counter attack at once."

TRUANT YOUTH GLAD TO BE HOME

After six days of truancy, Walter Henry Delmings, 15, returned home, only too glad to wash the family dishes. Six days ago Walter considered life a pretty bad thing, all dishes and wash. His mother wouldn't let him attend the school picnic because she couldn't watch him carefully to see that he didn't get hurt, and she wouldn't let him go to play baseball with the other kids, so he decided to leave all the dishes and work and run away.

First he walked over to Alameda, and it was a pretty long way from his home. After walking the streets of Alameda while he began to be tired and hungry, so he thought he would go home, but home was a long way and he would probably get a scolding and more dishes, so he remembered that he had some friends down in West Oakland, and started out.

On his way to his friend's home he passed the Detention Home. He thought that probably if he "stuck" around long enough they would give him something to eat. He "stuck" and was there until yesterday, when his mother took him home.

And now he is glad to be home again and whistles as he does his chores, resolving that he is home to stay.

U. of C. Buys More Los Angeles Land

LOS ANGELES, July 14.—The University of California has completed the purchase of seven and one-half acres of ground adjoining the present campus of the southern branch of the university here and an additional tract of the same size is being negotiated for. The land acquired was taken over at about $10,000 an acre.

The continued growth of the southern branch caused the regents to foresee the need for more buildings and more ground to put them on in the near future.

MISS MARION DAVIS, who will enter upon her senior year at Mills next term and who will be assistant in English. Miss Davis was the winner of the Morrison scholarship. (Boys Portrait)

MAN SEES WOMAN FOR FIRST TIME

OMAHA, July 14.—Tracy Gillis, a rancher from the wilds of Western Nebraska, yesterday saw his first day of civilized life. For thirty-three years his father had kept him in ignorance of the world. He never had seen a woman since he was a baby in arms until he came to Omaha.

According to Gillis, his father, George Gillis, married an actress in Chicago thirty-four years ago. The marriage was not a happy one and after the baby was born the father took the child and penetrated into Nebraska wilderness. He developed a ranch, but never permitted a woman on the place.

Two years ago the father died. The son buried him on the ranch and carried on the work without a thought of leaving the place. Recently neighbors told him of the wonders of the outside world and Gillis was induced to come to Omaha. Gillis commented on the dress of women and gazed awe-struck at towering buildings. He said he would go back to the ranch in a day or two, but would return to Omaha next fall and drink of the pleasures of the city. He had no intention, he said, of leaving the path of solitude and privacy his father had taught him, but expressed the belief that a man should know something of how his fellow men live.

"I will never know before there was such a thing."

The late Professor Henry Morse Stephens of the University of California depicted the strange story of Tracy Gillis in his last work, "The Hermit," written more than two years ago.

"The Hermit," a poetic fantasy, tells almost in detail the selfsame story as related by Gillis. The play was staged by the Family Club at its annual out-of-doors drama at the Family Farm, near Woodside, May 21, 1919.

Chicagoans To Hike To San Francisco

CHICAGO, July 14.—Three ex-service men will start on a hike to San Francisco. They expected to reach the end of the trail in five months.

The men will carry army packs weighing about forty-one pounds each. They will sleep on the road and cook their own meals. They will rest on each Sunday.

Use Coconut Oil For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Multisud coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonful of Multisud will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Multisud coconut oil shampoo at most any drugstore. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months. Be sure your drug-gist gives you Multisud.—Advertisement.

HUGE INTERESTS CLASH IN SUIT ON YOLO WATER

Rice Industry in County Held To Be Vitally Affected By Court Action.

WOODLAND, July 14.—Two great land interests in Yolo county have found the way for a struggle yesterday when the B. F. Conaway Interests, representing 22,000 acres of re-claimed and rich grain and rice land in the Yolo Water and Power Company, brought a suit in the state court to stop the junction procedure of the Yolo Water and Power Company and 220 of its water users, to stop the alleged flooding of the plain-lands during harvest season. The B. F. Conaway water com-pany, furnishing water to 10,000 acres of rice lands, drain the water from these lands into the low Slough, which runs through a portion of the Conaway ranch, flooded the lands last year and pre-vented harvest, causing great loss annually.

It is alleged that the water company takes its supply of irrigating water from Cache creek and its headwaters and unnaturally fills Willow creek with them to the great detriment of the Conaway people.

The suit involves the vitals of the rice industry here, for adequate drainage facilities are held to be as necessary as the water to produce the crop. A great legal battle in which 500 different owners and growers will be interested will appear in the suit.

$350,000 Estate Is Ordered Distributed

Final distribution was ordered by Superior Judge Dudley Kinsell today in the $350,000 estate of the late Julia A. Prather, which has been in litigation for many years. A compromise recently permitted the closing up of the estate's affairs.

Two-thirds of the property goes Miss Julia Adams and the balance divided between the Misses Ella and Elizabeth Adams. All are daughters of Edson F. Adams, president of the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank, and who is a brother of Mrs. Prather.

TIGERS' SKINS TROPHIES OF ITALIAN WOMAN

Wife of Banker Arrives in S. F. After Hunting in India.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 14.—Credited with being one of the best women shots ever to have hunted in India, Signora Joseph Balzarotti, wife of Joseph Balzarotti, wealthy Italian banker and financier, arrived here late yesterday on the liner Siberia Maru. They bring with them a collection of tiger skins and other trophies as evidence of her skill.

With her husband she is touring the world. He is making an investigation of banking facilities throughout the world, and left Italy eight months ago. He says conditions in China are none too good for new commercial ventures at present, but that the situation in the whole Far East is rapidly improving. The fall in the price of rubber, he says, has been a serious matter to the merchants of India.

They will cross the country to New York from where, after a short stay, they will book passage home. Balzarotti's principal interests are located in Milan.

Attempts of a Chinese coolie to enter the stateroom of Miss Florence Hyde, niece of Governor Arthur M. Hyde of Missouri, while the Siberia Maru was lying in Wood Sung harbor, aroused the crew and passengers of the vessel when the young woman screamed. Miss Hyde had retired and was awakened when she heard the hand of a coolie being thrown through her stateroom porthole. She screamed and the coolie disappeared.

Accompanied by her mother and brother, Miss Hyde is returning from the months' tour of the Far East. They saw thousands starving and in other places grain decaying in the field for lack of transportation.

Former Governor C. J. McCarthy of Hawaii arrived here yesterday on the Matson liner Manoa en route to Washington, D. C. He is going on a representative mission to the Hawaiian Chamber of Commerce to work for measures for the betterment of conditions in Hawaii.

Another of the best-known Pacific steamship commanders has foregone single blessedness for the sea of matrimony. When the liner Manoa docked here late yesterday, officials of the Matson Navigation company who were at the dock to greet it saw that Captain E. H. Sandelin was not alone on the bridge. Beside him stood a woman, identified as Miss Mabel Hicks of Boston. News of the marriage in Honolulu had preceded the vessel's arrival, so they were greeted with showers of rice and flowers as they walked down the gangplank.

The wedding marked the culmination of a romance which started when Captain Sandelin was first mate of the liner Manoa, and Miss Hicks took passage on that vessel en route to Honolulu to accept a position in the Honolulu office of the Matson Navigation company.

A party of thirteen prominent Japanese are here today on the beginning of a tour of America to unofficially acquaint themselves with conditions and customs here. Those in the party are Captain T. Takakura, on the general staff of the Japanese army; H. Sakaki, director of home affairs of the Kanagawa department, who is here to study American methods in conducting municipal affairs; M. Makita, technical expert of Japan Steel Works, Ltd., who is here to study methods of steel manufacturing; I. Ikeda, financial expert; S. Hiruma, chief engineer of Korea; T. Homa, hydraulic engineer of Korea; Professor K. Taira of the Imperial university of Tokyo; Li. R. Tamamoto, manager and secretary of the Yokohama Fire and Marine Insurance; J. Watanabe, mechanical engineer, Japanese Imperial government railroad department; J. Ogata, commissioner-in-chief of the Metropolitan Fire Department, Tokyo; T. Kariyone, expert of the sanitary bureau of the Imperial home department; and Y. Okamoto, a member of the Kumamoto prefecture assembly.

Andre Serabian, former specialist on foreign affairs on the personal staff of the ex-Czar of Russia, is in San Francisco today, following his arrival here from the Orient yesterday. He is a Russian, and a refugee from the Soviet government, which held him prisoner for a time. He is en route to Paris, where his family has been located since the downfall of the Russian Imperial government.

A favorite holiday pastime among the schoolboys of Naples is collecting lumps of lava from Vesuvius, still warm and soft, and to stick coins in the centers of them before they harden.

JUST SEND THEM TO ME, SAYS FRICK

"If anybody wants to know about Tanlae just tell them to 'ask me,'" said E. J. Frick, city employee of San Jose, Cal., living at 957 Harkness Ave.

For the past four or five years he was in a mighty bad state of health and had an awful itching in my back like lumbago. I couldn't sleep well, and got up mornings so sore and stiff I couldn't straighten up, but would have to drag off to my work that way. It would take me fully an hour to get limbered up in an hour to get through the day. I had no appetite either, and was in a terribly weak, rundown condition. Nothing did me any good and every day was just another one of misery for me.

"I finally began taking Tanlae, however, and today am feeling just fine. That awful itching has entirely gone from my back. I am eating like a wolf, and I sleep like a top at night. The soreness, stiffness and pain has gone from my body, and I get up mornings fresh and ready for a good day's work. I enjoy my meals more than I ever did, and have put on several pounds in weight. Tanlae has certainly done the work in my case and am always glad to speak a good word for it."

Tanlae is sold in San Francisco, Oakland and Berkeley by the Owl Drug Co.—Advertisement.

Fruit Season and Street Elevation Among Queries

Apricots, prunes and street elevations were among the query subjects that came in to The TRIBUNE's information bureau for solution today. Several women have inquired as to what time various fruits will be in.

Moorpark apricots and Satsuma prunes will be in in two or three weeks. Bartlett pears will be in in a month.

Another query that came in today was as follows:

"Will you kindly tell me through your paper what is the elevation at Fifty-first and Telegraph avenue, Oakland?"

The elevation at that point is 113 feet.

San Jose Lions Plan Welcome for Brethren

SAN JOSE, July 14.—Members of the San Jose Lions' club, in weekly session at the Hotel Montgomery here yesterday afternoon, laid out the most elaborate set of plans for the welcoming of visiting throngs from all parts of the country, they claim, ever mapped out here, the great program of events to be carried out next Wednesday when close to 1000 delegates to the national convention of the Lions, which is to be held in Oakland next week, come to the San Jose county line.

The entertainment program promises to rival anything in the city's history and the visiting delegates, coming from all parts of the United States, will be accorded an enthusiastic reception from the moment they are greeted by the local Lions at the San Mateo county line. Just north of Palo Alto, until the close of the festivities at the Hotel Vendome at midnight on Wednesday night.

Numerous committees have been formed by the Lions for speeding up the plans, although every member of the club is actively engaged in the work of preparation. The Lions of San Jose have assumed the attitude that rather than go to Oakland and carry out a small "stunt" at the convention there, they can gain more for this city and valley by staying home and bringing the 1000 delegates to this city.

When the automobile caravan which will bring the nation's Lions winds its way into the city from Half Moon Bay and other San Mateo county points it will be met by the local Lions en masse at the county line, where several tons of fresh fruit will be distributed to the visitors, being one of the big features of the day.

From the place of welcome the delegates will be taken through the Stanford university grounds and will be tendered a half-hour organ recital in the beautiful Stanford chapel, which the long line of automobiles will wind their way to this city.

The program of events here will be marked by what the Lions promise to be one of the most spectacular outdoor banquets in the history of the state. Tables with seats for the nearly 1000 delegates will be spread on the spacious lawns of the beautiful grounds of the Hotel Vendome. Through the trees of the grounds will be strung myriads of colored lights which will add to the color and picturesqueness of the occasion. The banquet itself will be most elaborate.

A special band and orchestra have been hired by the Lions to entertain the visiting throng during the banquet hour, while there will also be a quiet speech making program. A quartet and several soloists have also been engaged for the evening.

From 9 o'clock until midnight the visitors will be guests at a grand ball to be staged in the ballroom of the Vendome. Manager Fred Torgler of the big local hotelery has donated the use of the hotel and grounds for the entire evening, for which he has the lasting thanks of the local club.

The festivities will end at midnight, after which the automobile caravan will make its way back to Oakland on the eastern side of the peninsula.

Bisagno Estate Division Asked

Request was made today for partial distribution of the $372,000 estate of the late Joseph Bisagno, wine merchant, who made bequests to 102 persons, including Superior Judge James G. Quinn, Marjorie Rambeau, the actresses, and other well-known Alameda county residents. Bisagno's divided the estate into 102 shares, awarding so many to each devisee.

C. A. Gray, attorney for the executor, stated that after the expenses of the estate were paid there would be about $350,000 left, or $1400 for each share. He asked for a distribution of $1200 for each share. He also asked for $2500 extra compensation for himself, in addition to the $3100 allowed by law.

Superior Judge Dudley Kinsell continued the matter one week, but indicated he would grant the requests.

Abandoned Auto Is Claimed By S. F. Man

MANTECA, July 14.—Mystery surrounding the big auto found in the brush near the Stanislaus river, three miles from the nearest habitation, is cleared up. A San Francisco man, appearing to claim it, He states he placed it there for safe keeping, having removed the engine to use it on a dredger in that neighborhood. He objected to paying the charge for towing the car here, it having been placed in a local garage for safekeeping.

GUNS BLAZE AS COPS ROUND UP AMATEUR YEGG

Five Gallant Thief Takers, Shooting Free, Round Up 14-Year-Old.

SAN JOSE, July 14.—Frank Thatcher, who gives his home as San Francisco and his age as 14, but who looks 20, is proud of the fact today that it took an armed posse of five officers early yesterday morning at Campbell, west of here, to capture him after he had looted the Whitman Hardware Company's establishment in the orchard city.

He is proud, too, of the fact that the officers were forced to use their revolvers in order to check his flight.

Further than that, he is vastly proud of the fact that his three comrades, unnamed by him, escaped from their positions as guards around the store when the officers surprised them and ordered their surrender.

All of which leads up to the story. The quiet little community of Campbell was rudely interrupted in its slumbers yesterday morning shortly after 5 o'clock when a volley of pistol shots pierced the peaceful night air. Following the shooting there was naught save quietude for many moments more. Then the townspeople ventured forth and soon the news spread that two men had been wounded in a gun battle between bandits attempting to rob the Campbell bank and special officers under Constable Sharp.

The rumor grew and soon the community was abuzz with the report, despite the earnestness of the hour.

But 'twas not such. The whole affair merely constituted the arrest of 14-year-old Thatcher.

With the desperadoes he went to the Whitman store, stationed the others as guards and then entered the place. The boys were "spooked" by the alert officers and the surrounding of the "bandit" by San.

"But kids will be kids and when the guards got wind of the officers' presence they decided to make a dash for the cops" and away they went. It was then that officers brought their revolver into play, firing into the air in the hope of scaring the lads into surrender. The shots, however, only served to scare them into faster travel and they escaped.

Poor Frank, trapped in the building, was surrounded by the five officers and soon landed in the town jail. Yesterday afternoon he was turned over to the juvenile court here and will face the juvenile court tomorrow.

Harding Pardons S. F. Dry Law Violator

SAN FRANCISCO, July 14.—President Warren G. Harding has exercised his pardoning power for the first time so far as a San Franciscan is concerned on behalf of a violator of the prohibition laws. He is Dan Anglum, proprietor of the Junction Bar, 1938 Market street, arrested following the seizure of $30,000 worth of liquor on the premises by the prohibition enforcement officers.

The President has ordered the release of Anglum on July 18, although he began to serve a six-months sentence in the county jail only on May 27. The action of the President amounts to a commutation of sentence.

Anglum was arrested for the possession and sale of liquor and sentenced to a six-months term and a $500 fine. Deputy U. S. Marshal George Burnham was notified by the attorney general today that President Harding had ordered his release on Monday providing he has paid his fine in the meantime.

Cole, director of nursing, Red Cross, Pacific division.

Warrant Threatened For Missing Alien

That aliens may not occupy the time of the Superior Court by starting naturalization proceedings and then drop out in the midst of such proceedings was indicated by U. S. Naturalization Examiner F. M. Littleton today in threatening a bench warrant for Edmund Harold Corley, theater manager, of 518 Dover street. Corley does not appear for hearing July 22.

Corley, who is a British subject, did not respond when his name was called by Judge L. S. Church.

Son of Minister Jailed For Theft

Hopkins, whose father is the Rev. James J. Hopkins of Parsons, Kansas, confessed to robbing the Illinois rooms of a saxophone, clothing and other valuables. Probation Officer Leonard Compton recommended that probation be denied, stating that Hopkins' "who's incapable of controlling his own conduct."

Assemblyman Denies Tavern Ownership

Assemblyman Morrison was his counsel. He denied proprietorship in the Beach Tavern, a raid upon which resulted in his arrest. The commissioner continued the case until July 25.

Flood of Unwholesome Literature Poisoning World, Says Seven Day Adventist Leader

A group of church leaders who are making the Seventh Day Adventists' summer camp conference in Fruitvale one of the most successful ever held by that church. They are: standing (left to right), J. D. ALDER, home missions secretary; ELMER H. ADAMS, pastor of the Oakland first church, and W. F. MARTIN of Glendale, religious liberty secretary. Seated are (left), R. D. QUINN of Washington, D. C., general conference field secretary, and G. W. WELLS, president of the California conference.

Bible Study Urged in Schools as Foundation for Education of Younger Children.

Declaring that an ever-increasing stream of unwholesome literature is flooding the world, and that much of it is of such a nature as to be unfit for circulation, F. E. Painter, Field Missionary Secretary of the Pacific Union Conference, began an address on "Literature Ministry" at the 8 o'clock morning service of the Seventh Day Adventist camp conference today. "It is occasion for alarm," he said, "that a large part of the reading public demand reading matter that is so salacious that it would have been suppressed a few years ago."

"There is also," he declared, "an increasing interest in Biblical literature, and Seventh Day Adventist publishing houses, in common with other greater printers of religious publications, are being kept busy meeting this demand."

CIRCULATION COST.

In 1911 the total circulation cost of Seventh Day Adventist literature was $1,600,000, while for 1920 it rose to more than $5,000,000. The denomination now operates forty publishing houses and branches, most of them outside the United States, and print in 100 languages.

"Education" was the subject at the campmeeting yesterday afternoon. Affirming that the great need in education today is not in schools but in the home, the foundation of all the instruction, Prof. W. V. Rubie, educational secretary of the Pacific Union Conference, opened the discussion of the topic, "Christian Education."

He advocated training that develops the three-fold nature of the child, namely the mental, moral and physical. Any system of training that omits attention to any one of these essentials is weakened in the discharge of its responsibility to the child.

BIBLE STUDY URGED.

Because Seventh Day Adventists determine to give their children the benefits accruing from moral, or Bible, training they operate an educational system under denominational supervision, he said. The Bible is the basis of all instruction in their schools, from the kindergarten age to the complete college course, he advocated. In the California Conference along 316 children were enrolled in their schools in grades one to ten last year. This represented an increase in the attendance of 20 elementary schools under the direction of this one conference, and called for the employment of 35 teachers. These teachers are qualified, according to State requirements and work in modern school buildings.

Dr. G. K. Abbott, medical superintendent of the St. Helena Sanitarium, speaking at another session of the conference, called attention to the need of taking steps against possible future visitations of epidemics similar to the influenza epidemic.

BASTILLE'S FALL CELEBRATED BY ROTARY MEMBERS

Tribute Is Paid France By Speaker At Birthday Observance.

Oakland Rotarians today honored the 122nd anniversary of the Fall of the Bastille, the French national holiday, with a program arranged by the members of the club whose places of business are located in Fourteenth street, at their luncheon in the Hotel Oakland.

Under the chairmanship of Librarian Charles S. Greene, the program included musical selections by the Arion trio, a five-minute business talk by Harry Schroeder, the singing of "La Marseillaise" by E. Peret, "a real Frenchman," and the delivery of the message of the Bastille by Lewis B. Avery, assistant superintendent of schools.

In his address, Avery reviewed briefly the history of democratic development in France since the liberal movement which led to the storming of the Bastille and called France the leading democracy of Europe.

"The history of democracy—of government for the people, of the people and by the people—has wrapped up closely in the history of the two great democracies—France and the United States"—Avery declared. "And it is indeed fitting that the people of each nation observe the great anniversary of liberation from oligarchic rule of the other as a larger tribute to democracy as a principle than the single observance of our own anniversary. We are gathered today in such an observance of the great national anniversary of freedom which is the proud possession of the people of France."

Court Exonerates Naval Balloon Fight

WASHINGTON, July 14.—The naval court of inquiry on the free balloon fight into the Canadian wilderness last December by Lieutenant Louis A. Kloor, pilot, and Lieutenants Stephen A. Farrell and Walter Hinton, passengers, called for no disciplinary action and held that differences between Lieutenants Hinton and Farrell, who came to blows, were adjusted in a manly manner.

The court filed its report during Secretary Daniel's tenure of office, but was not accepted until Secretary Daniels approved it and made it public.

BOXING FANS THRILLED BY CLEVER WORK OF FOUR-ROUNDERS

YALE SWIMMERS WHO MEET OLYMPIC NEXT SUNDAY ARE THE HOLDERS OF GOOD RECORDS

EDDIE DIGGINS AGAIN SHOWS CLASS WHEN HE KNOCKS OUT NUNES

George Gibbons Beaten in the Second Round; Larry Fremont Is Stopped By Burman.

By BOB SHAND

A number of innocent chins got in the path of some well-meaning wallows at the auditorium last night and several little four-rounders are still trying to find out what happened to them. It was one of the best card locals fans ever did see, even though the new crop of boxers predominated. There was action galore and a lot of counting, but at that the boys were well-matched and nobody was seriously hurt.

Eddie Diggins, the former Olympic Club lightweight, again came through on the bit, Johnny Nunes being about one minute shy of lasting the four rounds. Johnny did surprisingly well in the first two rounds and got in some stiff wallops that shook up the San Franciscan, but Diggins is a fifty-fifty kid and can take 'em as well as deliver 'em. After sampling the best Nunes had he started tearing in the third and right and left-hand swings soon had Johnny covering up. Diggins hit his man with everything in the book and he would have smacked him with Mr. Book himself had he been able to break into the library. Johnny tried hard to make his little playmate believe he was only stalling when he covered up, but Johnny was hurt. Diggins made a hurricane finish in the fourth and soon had Nunes on Quercus Street. A right-hand swing to the chin while Johnny was tottering proved the mercy shot and the bout was stopped. Diggins looks like a real comer and has established himself as a main-eventer here.

Tommy Simpson's big white hope, George Gibbons, became bewildered when Tom Morion planted a few on his chin and George was felled from further worry in the second round. He was tackling across the ring like a windmill on a stormy sea when Morion's arm was raised and nobody was more satisfied than the Gibbons kid. Gibbons was well enough in the opening chucker shooting in some stiff lefts but he often forgot to close his hands and his lack of experience was evident in his every move. Morion poked him on the nose and George took a count nine. He got up groggy and his head never cleared. Morion knew too much for the West Coast youngster. Gibbons needs a few more months in the gymnasium before tackling boys of the Morion type. Jack Davis again came through, knocking out Frankie Wolgast in the first round. It goes in the book as a technical knockout but Wolgast was simply proving the adage that discretion is the better part of valor. He stopped a few mean ones with his bread-basket but when Jack eluded him on the spine Wolgast curled up and played "Snow Day" down to sleep.

Jimmy Dunning and Lee Mason staged a fast scrap with Dunning taking the decision. Mason got a "mouse" under his right eye in the first round and the handicapped him throughout. Dunning finished strong and was the aggressor throughout. Mason lost the decision.

Larry Fremont Stopped In the First Round

Larry Fremont was stopped in the first round by Max Burman, from Doc Croll's barn. Nobody ever heard of Larry before but he is there a million and a half like a mule kick. He is a college boy who has been training for more than a year to take part in the four-round pastime. Larry stopped a few with his well-known glass chin in the first minute and was groggy. Marty slammed him one on the point after two minutes fighting and Fremont kissed the canvas.

Burman did not know enough to hook him while in this position although the punch would have been legal, Fremont having both knees off the floor but it was just as well. Had Burman swung while Larry was crouched defenses there might have been an accident and there might have been no more scraps. That's why the writer continued counting even after Fremont's knees were both off the floor. Larry got his chin in the way of another right after that and Burman was on his way to the dressing room before Bob McAllister could convince Fremont that the bat-tleship California had not sneaked into the building and rammed him.

Battling Larson and Chief Abernathy staged a good draw. The chief played for the stomach and came near losing on a foul but Larson did not complain as the punch did not hurt. Frankie Murphy and Frankie Thomas boxed a draw in what was one of the best fights of the night. Thomas showed a left hook his legs fast as lightning and he pulled a one-two with the punch in every round.

Jack Coogan must have been reading the life of Steve Brodie before coming to the battles. Mickey Denev grazed his chin with the first wound and the Coogan boy decided to call it a day.

Here are the members of the University of California baseball team who returned aboard the steamer Siberia Maru, after playing the various Japanese university teams. From left to right they are: A. ### Yale Mermen Coming With Fine Record

They Promise To Show Some Class in Meet With Olympics.

If one will but take a glance at the individual records of the members of the Yale championship swimming team, which meets the Olympic club team at Idora park Sunday afternoon, it can be seen without much effort why the men of Eli have carried away the top honors in the college swimming meets this year. The records of the members of the team comprise a most remarkable group.

Below is given the record of events and the records of the individual members of the team, who have been the strong points in placing the Yale men at the top of the list of college swimmers for the year.

200-yard relay—World's record held by Jeffries, Pratt, Thurston and Binney; time, 1:33 1-5; made in Carnegie pool, New Haven, Connecticut, February 25, 1921.

500-foot relay—World's record held by Solley, Pratt, Jeffries, Thurston and Binney; time, 2:06 1-5; made in Carnegie pool, New Haven, Connecticut, January 21, 1921.

1000-foot relay—Intercollegiate record held by Jeffries, Solley, Pratt and Binney; time, 1:16 4-5; made in Wesleyan pool, Middletown, Connecticut, March 5, 1921.

800-foot relay—Intercollegiate record made by Jeffries, Pratt, Thurston and Binney; time, 1:35 1-5; made in W. L. Jeffries, 23, member of 200-yard world record relay team, 1:33 1-5; 25-yard world's record relay team, 2:06 1-5; 100-yard intercollegiate record relay team, 1:16 4-5; 200-yard intercollegiate record relay team, 2:22.

He has taken part chiefly in the 100-yard dash and has been counted with the time of 55 1-5 seconds. He placed second in the intercollegiate 100-yard dash at the Brooklyn Polytechnic Preparatory school, New York, in 1920.

C. D. Pratt, 22, member of 200-yard world record relay team, 1:33 1-5; 250-yard world's record relay team, 2:06 1-5; 100-yard intercollegiate record relay team, 1:16 4-5; 200-yard intercollegiate record relay team, 2:22.

He has averaged around 2:37 for distance. He is the captain-elect for the team of 1922. He comes from Honolulu and prepared at the Punahou Academy, where he was captain of the swimming team and played water polo on the team. He is 21 years of age.

J. K. Pollard, 22, has been the winner of the intercollegiate drive for two successive seasons. His year of making a very strong field. He lives in Northampton, Massachusetts; prepared at the Cushing school and is 21 years of age.

R. H. Meagher, 21, holds the world's record for the 75-foot plunge and is 23 years of age.

Japs Support Baseball, But Will Not Root

Great But Silent Crowds Turn Out to Watch U. C. Players in Orient.

The Japanese will never become great and noted baseball players until they learn how to make a lot of noise. It is true that they have mastered the art of shouting "Banzai!" but this manifestation is not observed at any of the ball games, the vocal demonstration being confined to other occasions.

This is the opinion of R. W. Cortelyou, graduate manager of the University of California baseball team, which returned yesterday from a tour of Japan, during which they vanquished their "batting brethren of the Far East in eight out of eleven games.

Cortelyou said: "The American fan cannot imagine what baseball means in Japan. An average of something like 7000 spectators attend each of the games and throughout they never make the slightest sound. There was not one cheer, but nothing there was not a cheer. It was a strange and peculiar experience, but this did not in the least detract from the excitement and the interest of the game."

"We in Japan believe that as we advance in the adoption of your Occidental sports that we will become more friendly. But before we Japanese fully master the good old American game we will have to learn to root and make the same racket that you boys make. I congratulate you all and thank you for your efforts and entertainment."

"And for the life of me I am not certain that the old gentleman was not indulging in sarcasm. We were royally treated and the fact that we came to California did not seem to make the slightest difference. But as I said before, the game of baseball played in silence is something that would not make a hit here."

Of 40 seconds flat. This year he won the intercollegiate in this event and last year placed second only to his teammate, Wood. The time in each case being very good. He lives in Chicago, prepared at college at Andover and is 22 years of age.

E. Binney, Jr., 21, member of 200-yard world record relay team, 1:33 1-5; 250-yard world's record relay team, 2:06 1-5; 100-yard intercollegiate record relay team, 1:16 4-5; 200-yard intercollegiate record relay team, 2:22.

He has broken the intercollegiate record in the 50-yard dash five times successively, lowering it to 25, 24 1-2, 24 1-4 and 24 flat, the last performance being a very strong field. He lives in Northampton, Massachusetts; prepared at the Cushing school and is 21 years of age.

R. H. Meagher, 21, holds the world's record for the 75-foot plunge and is 23 years of age.

Sam Agnew, Seals' Catcher, Suspended By Pres. McCarthy

Willow H. McCarthy, president of the Pacific Coast league, today announced that he has suspended catcher Sam Agnew of the San Francisco club for three days because of his actions toward Ruppert, left fielder in the game at Sacramento yesterday. Agnew was fined $25 last week because he was charged from the game by Empire Croter, and at the time President McCarthy warned him that the next complaint would bring his suspension.

THIS TIME LAST YEAR

Ludy Langer Makes Appearance in Tank At Madison Square

The report states that Langer won out in the tank by a margin of more than two yards from one of the fastest fields of swimmers ever seen in New York. This was Langer's first competitive appearance in the United States since his return from a tour of Australia.

NORTHCLIFFE SPEAKS UP

Lord Northcliffe, the distinguished British publisher, has the correct idea about the difficulties Mr. David Lloyd George would encounter as a delegate to the international conference President Harding is about to convene to consider the question of limitation of armaments. There are too many people in every country mentioned as a probable party to the conference, not excluding Great Britain, who are suspicious and distrustful of the statesmanship of the British prime minister. He is too cool like a politician, too ready to let political and personal expediency be his guide.

Gifted with a true vision, Lord Northcliffe believes some other statesman should represent Great Britain at the conference. The British publisher has saved American citizens from the unpleasant task of being first to call attention to this fact. But since one of Mr. Lloyd George's own countrymen has mentioned the fact, it is now entirely proper to dwell upon it. Lord Northcliffe was formerly opposed to Mr. Lloyd George in politics. He stood with him for the greater portion of the war and served in the prime minister's government in an important capacity. He has separated politically and officially from him since the conclusion of the war. The reasons are several and obvious; he is temperamentally opposed to the tactics Mr. Lloyd George employs—they are too devious, often obscure and untrustworthy.

It cannot be forgotten that Mr. Lloyd George is deeply attached to the Anglo-Japanese alliance. He has outwitted the delegates to the London conference of imperial premiers by having Lord Birkenhead, the Lord Chancellor, and Lord Curzon, the Secretary for Foreign Affairs, render the opinion that the alliance has twelve months to run after it has been denounced by one of the high contracting parties. This has removed the alliance from the domain of discussion with a view to its repudiation at the present conference. It was found that Premier Meighen of Canada and General Smuts of South Africa, were inclined to be wholesomely frank in their condemnation of the alliance and Mr. Lloyd George did not desire them to air their views, which might be displeasing to Japan.

So, if the intimation that the prime minister may represent the British government at the Harding conference on disarmament is well-founded, Mr. Lloyd George is preparing to come to that conference with his Anglo-Japanese alliance safeguarded for another year. Should he design to come so armed with this instrument he should know in advance that he is not welcome, albeit he may be tolerated.

The Anglo-Japanese military alliance and an agreement for the limitation of American national defense cannot possibly exist together. Such a thing is unthinkable. The greatest and almost the single menace to the peace of the Pacific is the existence of this astounding alliance between Great Britain and the Oriental power. Those statesmen and politicians in Japan and Great Britain who urge the continuance of the alliance in its present form are hypocrites when they venture to talk in favor of the limitation of naval and military armaments.

It does not seem probable that much headway can be made in clearing away the clouds in the Pacific area so long as the alliance between Japan and England is in force. This cannot be said too emphatically, for the only way to real peace and mutual trustfulness is absolute frankness. Despite all the assertions of British and Japanese officials to the contrary, the alliance is aimed now at the United States and at this country only. There is no other danger to the respective of joint interests of Japan and Britain in the Far East against which any pact or coalition is needful.

Lord Northcliffe said yesterday substantially what THE TRIBUNE said the day before. If any progress is to be recorded at the armament conference Great Britain and Japan must come to the conference table with clean hands.

RAILROADS AND GOLD.

There comes a report of a gold strike on the Alaska railroad, where quartz deposits averaging over $100 a ton have been located. The prospectors quartered at Anchorage have stampeded for the new district with the same enthusiasm and high hope that has carried them to many a placer location.

All reports of gold discoveries must be taken with caution until their truth is verified. But this fact need not detract from the interest attaching to the discovering of a rich quartz lode in Alaska. Thousands of such locations have been made. There is plenty of quartz mining to be done in Alaska for many decades to come.

The railroad will tap these quartz mining districts and make it possible to work them. Transportation of milling ore and of machinery to the mining districts is what is required to bring new prosperity to the mining industry in the far north. More railroads is the way to the treasures of gold in Alaska.

IMMIGRATION MOVEMENTS.

During the first half of 1921 a total of 242,637 passengers sailed for transatlantic destinations from the American ports on the seaboard from Boston to Galveston. More than 350,000 passengers from overseas were admitted into the United States, the exact figures up until June 20 being 338,156, according to the records of the North Atlantic passenger conference. That the movement does not approach the prewar standards may be indicated by the fact that during the first six months only 100,000 more third class passengers gained admission than those who embarked for foreign parts across the Atlantic. The traffic shows an improvement over the first six months of 1920, 122,846 more having arrived and 10,175 more having sailed.

In the absence of official government figures, these movements in third class passengers may be taken as fairly closely indicating the movements of Europeans of the emigrant class during the first half of the year. The result is not discouraging. There is not yet any apparent confirmation of the fears frequently expressed that the country was about to be swamped by European immigrants. During the first six months the regulation of immigration was by passport regulation in Europe and by laws enacted prior to the war. The new immigration law did not become effective until after July 1.

Some countries are sending over as many immigrants as may be admitted under the law, but other countries are sending very few. Moreover there is a movement of Europeans back to Europe which was not anticipated by the alarmists. It is at the rate of nearly 500,000 a year and leaves the net gain of alien European residents comparatively small.

During the period of extreme scarcity of cargoes, covering the first four months of this year, accentuated by the strike of the marine workers, the United States Shipping Board at one time had 750 of its ships tied up and in charge of caretakers. That was the high mark, and it was very high in the cost of idleness. The cost of wages for crews and of provisioning 750 ships in operation runs into many millions a month. It pays the whole country to keep its ships busy all the time.

If the conversations now going on in London between representatives of the two Irish factions and the British government result in the establishment of a Dominion of Ireland, as now appears possible, Great Britain will have another vote in the League of Nations—seven instead of six. But the British crown never could place much dependence in the seventh vote.

Spanish publicists protest that prize fighting is brutal! Bull fighting and the slaughter of helpless horses in the bull ring is considered a polite form of entertainment in Spanish circles!

Senator France and Minister Crane have been permitted to enter Bolshevik Russia. If they have as much trouble getting out as they have had getting in their friends are in for many days of anxiety.

OVERCHURCHED TOWNS.

The report that a minister in Dallas has resigned giving as a reason that his town is overchurched with "four full-fledged pastors, all doing the same kind of work, teaching the same great truths, covering the same territory, when two would be sufficient to accommodate the church-goers any Sunday in the year," moves the Corvallis Gazette-Times to remark.

If he thinks four churches are too many in Dallas, we wonder what the Dallas minister would think of Corvallis, where there are eleven denominations having regular church edifices and several more which meet around private houses.

Four or eleven—whatever the number, it is a problem common to a good many of the rural districts. Most rural communities—and some city ones—are longer on church buildings than they are on church organizations that are able to function efficiently. The plan reason is the tendency to cling to non-essentials and to dissipate energy in channels where it does no good. In a certain Oregon town, for example, a proposed merger of several churches was blocked by an unseemly quibble over the technicalities of communion or something like that. As if the admission of a dissident church could possibly work harm!

NOTES and COMMENT

According to a news item, Russian immigrants are arranging to hold a mass meeting in San Francisco to give expression to their opposition to the law imposing a poll tax upon aliens. Pending the mass meeting, immigrants are advised not to register. Considering what Russian immigrants escape in leaving their own country, and what they are able to enjoy on arriving in this, overt action of this sort attracts attention.

It might set results.

THE FIRST TIME SMITH WORE HIS PALM BEACHES DOWN TO THE OFFICE.

THE ANGLO-JAPANESE PACT

"The Anglo-Japanese treaty is a menace not only to the friendship of the English-speaking peoples but also to the pacific development of the world."

This is the opinion of A. G. Gardiner, the eminent London editor and publicist, who in his latest book, "The Anglo-American Future," just published in New York by Thomas Seltzer, makes the proposal that England should denounce the alliance with Japan and pool its naval resources with those of the United States in order to form one great Anglo-American fleet.

The Anglo-Japanese treaty, Mr. Gardiner maintains, never commanded the popular approval of the English people and was defensible only when imperialistic Russia seemed a menace to Asiatic interests. It is utterly indefensible now that that menace has disappeared. He maintains, "Its influence has been thoroughly vicious, and it has made us at least a consenting party to the ambitions of Japan in China and criminally silent about such infamies as those practiced by Japan in Korea."

"But the weightiest objection to it is the fact that it offers a fatal barrier to the establishment of a sound understanding with America. Alliances such as that with Japan have no meaning except a sinister one, and one of the first steps that a British government, desiring to cleanse the Anglo-American atmosphere must take, is the denunciation of an alliance that ties our hands in China and is a menace to the peace of the world."

An arrangement between Great Britain and the United States pooling the respective navies, Mr. Gardiner believes, will solve the Japanese problem as well as other important international questions, bring about permanent world peace, and stop the mad speeding up of armaments. Great Britain and the United States, he says, have within their power the establishment of world peace. They could accomplish it by the simple expedient of pooling their navies. During the two greatest sea powers left after the war, no other power or combination of powers could prevail against them.

"The world," he writes, "will not consent to live by the sanction of the British fleet any more than it would consent to live by the sanction of the Prussian sword." But in any attempt on the part of any country, even the United States, to out-rival the British fleet, he sees disaster greater than the world has yet experienced, while their union would mean a greater beneficence than the world has ever enjoyed. "The announcement that the Anglo-American peoples had taken a step which would make naval war henceforth impossible would strike a death-blow at competitive armaments generally, stabilize the world on a peace basis, and turn its face confidently to the light."

The author no doubt represents the views of an important section of British public opinion, as he is one of the foremost Liberal leaders and has long been prominent in government councils, besides having been editor of the London Daily News for eighteen years.

Mr. Gardiner believes that the extraordinary naval expansion of Japan cannot be looked upon with equanimity and that Americans justly or unjustly see in the nation's rise and imperialistic trend of that country a threat to its most cherished institutions.

"The reason is not far to seek," he says. "It may seem odd that a country which has been the melting pot of all the nations of Europe should be alarmed at the idea of Japanese immigration. But the white man, no matter where he comes from, is easily assimilated, while the yellow man remains a race

About YOUR HEALTH

Quinsy Sore Throat; Its Causes and Its Remedies.

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M.D., Commissioner of Health, New York City.

There are many forms of sore throat, but the most distressing and painful is "quinsy."

Almost all abscesses are painful things. The degree of pain depends on the delicacy of the tissues. You know how it hurts when a fish-bone, sticking out of a bolus of food, scratches the throat. It is easy to understand why an abscess of this part of the anatomy is excruciatingly painful.

The pain of quinsy is in the throat, in the neck and in the head. It shoots up to the ear. It throbs and beats. It is knife-life in its cutting pain.

The tissues are so swollen that the space is too narrow to swallow. The voice is muffled. The movements of the jaw are interfered with, so that the mouth can be opened but little.

The mouth is fixed and open just enough for the saliva to dribble out. The secretions are stringy and tough. They are expelled with difficulty.

The patient looks stupid and ill. Indeed, the constitutional disturbances are such that it is no wonder the victim suffers. The temperature may go to 105 degrees and the pulse to 130. There is great prostration and sometimes the patient is delirious.

For the first day or two there is uniform and firm swelling of the throat tissues. After this time pressure of the finger finds a softened spot, giving the impression of fluid underneath. This indicates that pus has formed.

Left to itself, the pus will find its way to the surface and break through with great relief of symptoms.

Ordinarily but one tonsil is involved. Sometimes, however, the case is made doubly bad by having quinsy on both sides of the throat.

Some persons are subject to this trouble. They have it every year, sometimes every spring and fall. In such cases the tonsils are apt to be enlarged or diseased. Adenoids may be present.

Bad teeth and diseased gums predispose to quinsy. Disease of the nasal sinuses may be a factor in these attacks. No matter where they are, pockets of pus are dangerous things and may poison the system.

Exposure to wet or cold is another factor. Fatigue associated with such exposure is particularly harmful.

If the victim of frequent attacks of quinsy will study his own case, he will find that the sore throat follows an attack of intestinal indigestion or is associated with constipation.

It is important to correct all these underlying causes for lowered resistance. The teeth, tonsils, nasal sinuses, adenoids and intestinal tract must be given appropriate treatment. The kidneys must be made to function properly.

When the attack comes, needless to say, the doctor should be consulted at once. Early lancing will save days of agony. This little operation must be properly performed, because there are important blood vessels near-by that must not be injured.

In the beginning of the attack, holding ice in the mouth or gargling with bicarbonate of soda solution will promote the comfort. Applying the dry soda to the tonsil sometimes helps.

AUTOMOBILE SAFETY.

The only proper way to manage an automobile is to have it under control at all times. Then one will not make a nuisance of himself and may avoid the disaster that is always possible when one leaves it to the other fellow, or to the heedless child on the curbstone.—Springfield Union.

Two Thousand Delegates Speeding to Oakland For Lions' Convention

ALL DETAILS OF SESSION COMPLETED

Pre-Convention of Bay City
Members Will Be Held On Monday; Adjoining Districts
Offer Aid in Entertainment

Every detail connected with the program and the entertainment of the delegates of the international convention of Lions' clubs has been perfected, according to announcements of the convention committee at a meeting last night. More than 2000 delegates from all parts of the world will be in attendance when the convention opens July 15 to 22. President LeRoy Goodrich of the Oakland Lions club announced today that offers of assistance have been pouring in from every den of Lions in the state.

"The Lions realize the wonderful advertising opportunity offered the state of California in this convention," said Goodrich. "Delegates will be in attendance from every state in the union, from Canada and from abroad. The get-together spirit of California is manifesting itself in the way in which the Lions' clubs from the various sections of the state are taking over the entertainment features. We propose that every delegate shall leave the convention with the right impression of California—its enormous industrial and agricultural resources and the hospitality of its people."

MANY OFFER GIFTS.
"In evidence of the spirit of cooperation existing, I may say that the Lions' club of Reno is in daily communication with us and is offering to lend us assistance in every way. From Sacramento we are informed that gifts of fresh fruit will be sent to every delegate and his party. Fresno is sending special prize gift packages to the delegates of California."

So complete are the plans for the entertainment of the delegates that special kindergarten arrangements have been made for the children in order to release the mothers so that they may enjoy the various tours and trips provided for their husbands. In addition, arrangements were completed today whereby one of the Santa Fe ferryboats will be at the disposal of the visiting delegates all day Thursday, July 21.

It was announced today from convention headquarters by Frank Woodward, secretary of the Oakland club, that a dozen special trains are speeding westward and will arrive in Oakland next Monday or Tuesday. One special train with seven special cars from Port Worth, Chicago, Denver, Dallas, Springfield and Omaha will arrive at the Western Pacific station at Third and Broadway at 7 o'clock a. m. July 15. More than 500 delegates will arrive on that train.

RESTRICTION PLANNED.
The question which has been agitating many of the clubs as to membership classification will be one of the subjects of discussion at the convention. A movement is on foot, fostered by many of the clubs, to restrict memberships to business houses rather than individuals. It is pointed out that individual memberships open the way for business houses to flood the Lions and like organizations with their representatives to the exclusion of other business firms. With the business house and not the individual listed as a member, it would be impossible for one firm to join more than one club of the Lion type.

Following a lengthy discussion by members of the Oakland Lions' club at a meeting last night, it was decided to prohibit firms represented in the club to join other similar organizations. A resolution to that effect was passed. The action was

Amendment 16 Great Boon to Teachers Despite Dissatisfaction, Wood Declares

State Superintendent of Schools Also Urges Adoption of Tenure Law.

BERKELEY, July 14.—Amendment 16, a school measure, enacted by initiative at the last state election, is a great boon to the teachers of the state, despite rumors of dissatisfaction with it on the part of teachers, according to State Superintendent of Schools Will C. Wood, speaking at the annual convention of the California High School Teachers' Association, which opened yesterday at the University of California.

Wood said that many teachers over the state were asking the question, "How did amendment 16 aid me?" It has not been the means of increasing the pay of teachers, he said, but it surely has been the means of keeping the salary schedule from being reduced. It has made possible a continuance of war-time salaries.

Wood spoke in favor of a "teacher tenure law," providing tenure of office for teachers after teaching a fixed period. But he pointed out that if such a law was enacted, there must also be some means devised for keeping the teacher up to date. If such a law is enacted, teachers must not allow themselves to become "petrified," he said, for such would surely result in a repeal of the law.

Dr. M. E. Deutsch of the Department of Education of the University of California, and former dean of the Los Angeles Summer Session, welcomed the delegates at the general session yesterday afternoon. He made a short address. President George C. Thompson of Alameda, head of the state association, presided at the meeting.

An effort is being made at the convention to map out a uniform course of study for commercial work committee named yesterday to present plans. The committee is composed of L. M. Pease of Stockton, head of the Summer Session commercial work; W. C. Hunt of the Mount Tamalpais High School, Mill Valley; E. G. Grady of Oakland; and Miss Helen Johnson of Stockton.

Addresses were made at a general meeting this morning by Frank R. Rutter, Trade Commissioner, Washington, D. C., on "Our Trans-Pacific Trade," and by Professor John Johnston, Yale university, on "Economic Importance of Scientific Research."

GUN 'TOTER' HIT BY NEW ORDINANCE

Fine of $100 Provided By City Council For Carrying Concealed Weapons; Change in Traffic Law Is Proposed

The ordinance raising the penalty for carrying concealed weapons was given second reading by the city council today and will become a law shortly. The ordinance was introduced as one of the last acts of the old administration and was given to Chief of Police James P. Drew for review. Drew today reported favorably. The ordinance provides a fine of not less than $100 for violation.

The position of Rev. J. Gordon McPherson, Holy Ghost and Fire Revivalist, for a banner in front of a colored Baptist church on Filbert street, was filed by the council this morning without comment.

Proposed amendments to the traffic ordinance, making a uniform parking time of 10 minutes were set over two weeks by the council for further study. Commissioner Edwards announced that the Auto Association of California will soon place permanent parking signs on the streets to take place of the temporary ones.

A protest by residents of Florence street against proposed paving was sustained by the council. The residents complained against proposed high costs of this improvement, which will be deferred for a time.

PATRIOTISM KEYNOTE OF N. E. A. MEET

Superintendent of Schools
F. M. Hunter Says Seven
Definite Objects Attained
At Des Moines Convention

Returning from the annual convention of the National Education Association at Des Moines, Ia., Superintendent of Schools Fred M. Hunter today expressed satisfaction at the progress achieved by that organization and especially with the movement toward patriotic cooperation with the American Legion and other national organizations with a view to training all the youth as good American citizens.

"The achievements of this convention were many," says Hunter. "The attendance was about 6000, from all the states of the union. The slogan of the convention was 'United We Stand' and a national program in education providing for the education of all the children of all the people all the time."

One gratifying act was the establishment of a representative form of government for the association in place of the old form, where any state could send as many delegates as it liked and perhaps swamp the meeting. The improved unity of the organization was marked.

There were seven definite achievements of the convention, all with far-reaching influence on the educational methods of the country. The convention did as follows:

Established a representative assembly as the governing body of the National Education Association.

Brought about unity in the profession by suppressing radical elements.

Three-Year-Old Begins Training as Globe Trotter

ALAMEDA, July 14. Johnny Malmin has gone into training as a globe trotter, or an explorer, or a railroad conductor. He believes in starting early to prepare for a career.

Yesterday afternoon when the Lincoln avenue suburban train stopped at the Southern Pacific station at Willow street Johnny climbed aboard. When the train reached the mole he went with the crowd on the ferry. On the other side he decided not to land, but remained on the boat and returned to Alameda. Boarding the train he rode around the loop and back to the mole. When the train reached the mole a brakeman recognized Johnny and took him into custody, telephoning the police.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Anna Malmin, 2109 Pacific avenue, had asked the police to send an officer to her son. They told her to meet the 3:33 p. m. eastbound train at Willow station. She did and Johnny was handed down the steps to her. Johnny is three years old.

Parents and adopting a plan satisfactory to secessionist group of superintendents.

Adopted platform of cooperation with American Legion, seeking American citizenship for all teachers, patriotic exercises in all schools, universal training for citizenship of all youth through high school and Americanization of all foreign elements.

Adopted platform for national program in education, including support of Towser-Sterling bill which was unanimously approved, abolition of military, Americanization of foreign elements, a trained qualified teacher who is an American citizen in every class room in America, and universal physical fitness.

GOLF COURSE IS NEEDED HERE, NASH AVERS

Swimming Pools and Tennis
Courts For Adults Also Suggested
After Long Visit in East

A fine public golf course and a number of swimming pools in Oakland may be the direct result of a tour of the Eastern cities just completed by Jack Nash, head of the Oakland recreation department, who returned today after a month's absence.

I found by comparison with other cities that Oakland has the best system of children's playgrounds in the nation, but is a little bit lacking in recreation for young folks and adults. What we seem to need in comparison with other cities is a golf course, tennis grounds and swimming pools," says Nash.

I received many fine suggestions as to constructing and operating a playground and I have the definite hope that Oakland can at least build one public swimming pool in West Oakland this year. As for golf courses, the Eastern cities are paying great attention to them. In St. Louis, smaller than Oakland, has installed two 18-hole links. And so it goes throughout the East. I hope Oakland can soon start with these facilities for healthy sport."

Nash attended the national conference of Social Agencies at Milwaukee and the National Educational Association at Des Moines. At both conventions he spoke on recreation in Oakland.

$100,000 STOCK LEFT UNCLAIMED BY OWNER'S DEATH

Recent Death of Leon Morrison Promises Search For His Heirs.

Stock in a lumbering store, valued at $100,000, including more than 3000 suits of clothes and other articles of wearing apparel, today is left unclaimed by heirs, following the death on June 20 of Leon Morrison, pioneer merchant of Oakland. That Morrison was not the man's real name was the statement made by Joseph E. Crab, of 1112 Excelsior street, who acted as manager in the store for many years. According to Crab, Morrison at one time told him that he had made a will but that the authorities would have a hard time locating his heirs, as Morrison was not his right name. Search is being made by public administrator J. H. Hill and Deputy Administrator Ben O. Johnson for relatives but not a trace can be found.

Of the estate in stock only $1500 was in cash, the remainder being in an unusual amount of stock. Morrison started twenty-two years ago as a tailor in a small establishment between Ninth and Tenth streets, on Broadway. He then moved into the retail business at 332 Broadway and after many years of struggling finally succeeded and moved to 1002 Washington street. There he ran an ironing shop, which increased his stock at every possible chance. The store is said to contain four times the amount of stock for a store of its size.

What's Happening in the Motor World

by Jim Houlihan

There's a lot of good information in the road report printed below, data for which has been assembled by George Grant, touring bureau manager of the California State Automobile association.

Just one addition to the report is suggested by the writer, and that relates to the roads leading into Santa Cruz. The writer would have had difficulty reaching the Santa Cruz City by taking the Bear Creek road as far as its summit, then traveling south and east along Summit Avenue, finally reaching the Santa Cruz road which is now in good shape and eventually entering Santa Cruz.

The rough portions of this route will be covered in three days, the Bear Creek road, the distance along Summit Avenue, continuing on until the Santa Cruz road is met. The mileage is much less than that on the Watsonville and a good driver won't mind 10 miles or so of dusty roads.

PACIFIC FOOD PRICES AND WORLD'S COMMERCE

SUPPORT STILL CHIEF NEED OF PRODUCE MART

Week Proving Draggy Under Over-Abundant Offerings From Ranches.

This week's commission market trade in Oakland is proving as dull and heavy as last week's was active. Under the pressure of heavy deliveries in all lines, cooler weather and retail trade restrictions, the operations today were not so wide in volume again and weakness was general.

Good peaches were to be had below $1 a basket or at about $1.75 and $2 a lug. Only second class pears were on the market, bringing $1.25 a box. Melons were plentiful. Southern cantaloupes brought only up to $2.50 but some Turkeys offered were able to command up to $3. A few Persians and a scattering of honeydew melons was on hand.

Tomato quotations changed but little but the market was unsupported and most sales were far below top asking prices. Berries, which were fairly strong yesterday, showed some weakness although red Logans brought up to 50 cents, black 50 to 10 cents below as quoted on the drawer. Raspberries sold for 90 cents and strawberries up to 70 cents a drawer.

Deliveries in nearly all fruit and vegetable lines were extremely heavy. Distinct increase in the strength of the vegetable oil and land substitute market is being felt among jobbers and retailers in the grocery trade here. Two popular hard substitutes are quoted a cent and more a pound higher. Cooking and salad oils have advanced correspondingly or are about to move up. The advance is seen as a steady influence and apparently markets in these lines have reached the end of the price declines.

Further advances in lemons, now selling up to $11 a box, the highest quotation in nearly five years, are anticipated. One Oakland dealer to date has sold 12 lemons within a short time. The trade was very strong at $11 today, one of the few firm spots in the whole range.

The pest control service, of the California Department of Agriculture, upon a report from Theo. D. Talmans, field entomologist, says that the hot, dry weather of the last two weeks has caused the rapid development of the red spider in fields and orchards. The crops most severely affected are almonds, apricots, peaches, hops, strawberries and others, varying according to the location and cultural conditions. The amount of irrigation water available has an important bearing on the control of the red spider. Orchards which have been persistently dusted with dry sulphur are considerably less affected than untreated areas.

OIL CUTS IN SOUTH.—NEW ORLEANS, July 14.—Effective at once, the Standard Oil company of Louisiana has reduced the prices of gasoline and kerosene one cent a gallon. This brings the price of gasoline to 12 cents and kerosene to 12 cents.

Speeders Curbed By Police of Alameda

ALAMEDA, July 14.—Traffic Officer George V. Grey of the Alameda police, apparently, has succeeded in taming the speed maniacs who used to make a nuisance of Alameda streets. Today there were only four offenders in police court, where formerly there used to be from ten to a dozen or a score. Grey thinks it is because he has changed the "wild" and "Barney Oldfield" they can't go too fast for him. He used to be an aviator before he joined the Alameda police.

All the offenders today were residents. J. C. Simmons, 558 Port-first street, Oakland, paid $5 fine; Louis Dunn, Ninth and K streets, Sacramento, paid $10; G. F. Albright, Stockton, forfeited $5 bail, and W. E. Emmet, 820 Bddy street, San Francisco, forfeited $10 bail.

"Black Billy Sunday"

"Regeneration, or the New Birth" will be the topic of the discourse to be delivered tonight by the "Black Billy Sunday" at the revival meeting at the Beth Eden Baptist church, Elbert, between Seventh and Eighth streets. Another sermon in his revival series will be delivered tomorrow night at the same place, and the subject will be "The Crucifixion as the World's Blackest Tragedy," in which the revivalist will discuss the culmination of sin.

$250 Stolen From
Soft Drink Parlor

While Manuel G. Rebolo was sunning himself in front of his soft drink parlor at 1445 Sixteenth street, $250 was stolen from a cigar box which was hidden underneath the bar. The money belonged to W. O. Banks, who left it there for safe keeping. Rebolo told the police that he suspects three men who were playing cards in the back room while he was out in front.

BABIES OF SIX MONTHS SHOULD
TALK, SAYS M. D.

CHICAGO, July 14.—If your 6-months-old baby gurgles "Goo-goo" and "Skil-bob" when you poke a playful finger at his "tummy," he is behind the times. He should say:

"Desist, father; your antics annoy me."

Dr. W. B. Swift of the Northwestern University's school of speech believes that all 6-months-old babies should talk plainly. He will open a clinic soon, where on Monday Wednesday and Friday mornings mothers may bring their infants for instruction in the art of talking.

$10,000 in Missing Goods
Found; S. P. Deckmen Held

Ten thousand dollars' worth of stolen loot was recovered last night by Police Inspectors Rodie Wallman and Tim Flynn, they charge, in the home of two deckhands employed by the Southern Pacific Railroad Company.

John Fredopovich, 629 Poplar street, one of the suspected men, was arrested at his home, and John Braz, 293 Twenty-ninth street, was arrested on the Santa Clara ferryboat by the San Francisco police, and will be brought to this city today.

For a number of months tobacco in small quantities has been stolen from the lockers of the Van Nuy Company, which operates the news, candy and tobacco stands on the ferries.

The stolen tobacco, the police say, was found hidden behind a secret panel in the kitchen wall. Wallman and Flynn continued their search. In one of the rear bedrooms they noticed that one of the boards in the ceiling looked as though it was tampered with. After examining the ceiling the inspectors pulled two of the boards loose and crawled into the attic, where they reported they found over $5000 worth of women's clothing, which included dresses, coats, silk stockings, underwear, hats, suitcases, purses and neckties.

Fredopovich, the inspectors say, said that the goods belonged to Braz. The inspectors then went to the home of Braz. In two large sample trunks, they report, they found about the same amount of stolen property as was discovered in Fredopovich's home.

No charges will be placed against the men until the police ascertain on which side of the bay the alleged thefts were committed.

The two inspectors said that the men have never attempted to sell or use any of the goods except the tobacco.

Train Cut Protested
By Alameda C. of C.

ALAMEDA, July 14.—The Alameda Chamber of Commerce last night adopted resolutions protesting against the proposed withdrawal of the 5:46 a. m. and 1:15 a. m. train and ferry service to and from San Francisco by the Southern Pacific company, declaring such curtailment unfair, unreasonable and unwarranted. The Railroad Commission is to be furnished with a copy of the resolutions.

City Manager Clifton E. Hickok informed the Chamber of Commerce that he had been advised by Secretary H. C. Mathewson of the Railroad Commission that the Southern Pacific will not be allowed to abandon the services as proposed until after a hearing. The change was to have gone into effect on July 17.

STATE ASSESSORS
TO HOLD ANNUAL
SESSION HEREI. Harrison Clay Promises
Visitors Lively Entertainment.

The annual convention of the county assessors of California will be held in Oakland on August 18, 19 and 20.

I. Harrison Clay, Alameda county's assessor last year, invited the convention to meet here and promised the delegates a good time as well as to show them one of the most beautiful sections in the country.

Clay says at least 52 of California's 58 assessors will be in attendance and that Oakland and Alameda county will have a wonderful opportunity of showing their attractions and resources. Clay is in charge of the program of entertainment and plans to take the visitors for a drive over the Skyline boulevard, for a ride on one of the city's boats on Lake Merritt, to the Alameda beaches, through the University of California grounds and elsewhere in the county. The supervisors will be asked to make an appropriation to help with the entertainment.

Memory of Judge Melvin
Will Be Honored by Elks

All Elksdom will rally in Oakland Sunday to do honor to the memory of the late Justice Henry Melvin, former grand exalted ruler.

At the Melvin plot in Mountain View cemetery, a special memorial tablet will be erected to the memory of the late supreme justice and the man who in 1906, as exalted ruler of the entire brotherhood, instituted Flag Day as a national event to be observed by all the lodges of the United States.

The unveiling will be a national affair. All the past grand exalted rulers now living are expected, as well as 600 high officials of the fraternity, now finishing their convalescence in Los Angeles. The delegation will represent every state.

The visiting Elks will arrive Sunday noon. The Oakland lodge will entertain them at luncheon and an auto trip, after which the unveiling of the memorial tablet will be held at 4 p. m.

Past Grand Exalted Ruler John L. Sullivan of New Orleans will be the speaker, and an address will also be given by Past Grand Exalted Ruler Ray Benjamin of San Francisco. Governor Stephens will be a special guest of honor and will deliver a short talk. Others seated on the special platform will include seven Supreme Court judges of California, the past grand exalted rulers, the mayor and the council of Oakland, and officials of the Oakland lodge.

The massed drill teams of San Francisco and Oakland lodges will constitute a guard of honor, and the Steindorf band will furnish music. Arrangements for the ceremonies are being completed by a committee headed by James M. Shanley and including J. Cal Ewing, Hardy Hutchison, E. M. Grandjean, William A. Daley, Al LaCoste, Edward Deming and City Treasurer H. J. Anderson.

Ernest Froncard, who was arrested last night by Police Sergeant James Walters on a charge of speeding after he had chased him over a mile, was fined $15 this morning by Police Judge Mortimer Smith. His operator's license was taken from him by the judge for a period of six months.

Froncard did not have enough money with him to pay the fine, so he was sent to jail. If he does not pay the fine he will have to serve seven and a half days in the city prison.
